

Chrysler and the UAW

by Sam Marcy

Written by a long-time workers' organizer, this pamphlet both analyzes the crisis at Chrysler and gives autoworkers specific proposals to fight back. He takes up: the role of the Loan Guarantee Board; how autoworkers can protect their jobs; how the UAW could regain its strength; and the need for industry-wide solidarity. 28 pp., $.25 0-89567-047-X

Eyewitness Ethiopia: The Continuing Revolution

by Deirdre Griswold

Meet members of the peasants' and urban dwellers' associations (kebeles) who are bringing the Revolution into every corner of Ethiopia. Visit the war front in the Ogaden where refugees and military commanders explain the international significance of the Somali invasion. Hear Chairman Mengistu describe the achievements and tasks of the Revolution. The author spent three weeks in Ethiopia in February 1978. The pamphlet is well illustrated. Also contains a chronology of the revolution. 49 pp., $1.50 0-89567-028-3

Feminism and Marxism

by Dorothy Ballan

The women's liberation movement has had a vast impact on this society, challenging many sex roles. This pamphlet explains the nature of women's oppression and that since it, like all forms of oppression, is rooted in class society, it can be eliminated only through socialism. 68 pp., $1.50 0-89567-006-2

Generals Over the White House: The Impact of the Military-Industrial Complex

by Sam Marcy

This pamphlet not only analyzes the role of the military in the U.S. as seen in critical political developments, but it also takes up the question of the long-term economic impact of the giant military-industrial complex, and how what was once a major stimulant to the U.S. economy has now become a chronic depressant. 59 pp., $1.50 0-89567-042-9

Oil Belongs to the People

by Vince Copeland

A tremendous empire has been built on oil by a few super-rich corporations. Their stranglehold over this vital resource has led to an artificial fuel crisis and soaring prices. This popular pamphlet explains why oil, like air and water, should belong to everyone and what we can do to win control over it. 20 pp., 25¢ 0-89567-034-8

Reindustrialization: The Menace Behind the Promise

by Sam Marcy

The think-tanks of big business have come up with a "solution" to the decline of U.S. industry. But Sam Marcy shows that for working and oppressed people, the cure of "reindustrialization" is worse than the disease! This pamphlet covers: why the "Sun Belt" is attracting union-busting companies; the enthusiasm of the military-industrial complex for "reindustrialization"; why it will result in less jobs, not more; the three different crises facing the U.S. ruling class; and a strategy of fightback for the working class movement. 56 pp., $1.75 0-89567-045-3

Soweto Remembered: Conversations with Freedom Fighters

by Paddy Colligan
