the Liberator

Published by the Advocates for Self-Government, Inc.

Main office: 940 E. Bremer, Fresno CA 93728 / Publications office: 1115 Sundial Circle, Birmingham AL 35215

Oct/Nov/Dec 1989 * Vol. 5 No. 4 * Celebrating the 200th birthday of the word libertarian

Advocates for Self-Government, Inc.

May it be to the world ... to assume the blessings and security of self-government. —Thomas Jefferson

The Advocates for Self-Government is a non-profit educational organization. Our purpose is to present the freedom philosophy honestly and persuasively to opinion leaders so that they can encounter, evaluate, and if appropriate, embrace the ideals of self-government. Contributions are tax deductible under section 501(c)(3).

Yo! Greetings, my fellow liberty-communicator!

Little bird tells me you know a lot about liberty. But you get frustrated sometimes trying to communicate it.

Yes, I enjoy the arguments, too. But do they do much good? Or, like the score of last year´s ball game, are arguments of short term value? Slowly (my wife would say, ever-so-slowly), I´m learning how go beyond arguing to a new and better world -- attracting people to our ideas.

And the purpose of the Advocates is to take the lessons I learn, combine them with the hundreds of good ideas that come from the field, and spread these ideas so that all of us can use them.

This LIBERATOR is our annual catalog issue. Here are some suggestions of old and new.

If you enjoy keeping your mind busy while you´re driving, get your ears on some of our cassette tapes: If you´re just starting to become a better liberty communicator, get Communicating with Liberals by Peter Breggin (tape A-1). This is the most important speech I´ve heard in the libertarian movement.

If you´re ready to learn a lot, get the Liberty Communicator Course, available in both 10-hour and a 20-hour versions. Great for long distance drives, but also useful for short hops around town.

Maybe you´d rather sit back and leave the explaining to us. Then get the 82-minute video, Self-Government: And Idea Whose Time Has Come (Again). Great for lending. Or showing to friends in your home. AND NOW WE´VE LOWERED THE PRICE: Just $29.95!

You´ve probably seen the World´s Smallest Political Quiz. We´ve distributed over 1,000,000 copies and it´s becoming an institution in the libertarian movement. But have you seen the latest versions: a poster-size version that´s great for displaying in your den, rec room or basement. Also, the new personalized quiz cards, with your name printed right on the cover.

And with the Christmas season upon us, how about some great gifts for your non-libertarian friends, say, a copy of Restoring the American Dream by Robert Ringer. Original printing, hardbound, in dustjackets, and a price that can´t be beat - $39.95 for 25 books!

If you have Christian friends or family and want to see them take a step closer to your ideas, lend them a copy of the audio tape Does Christ Ask Christians to be Libertarians? by yours truly. (My answer is, "No. He demands it.")

Join me in outreach. Let´s grow to millions!

Marshall Fritz

Annual Catalog Issue