

KNOW YOUR BIBLE SERIES

BY ROY L. SMITH

Inexhaustible treasures wait in the Bible. Yet many eager minds find themselves locked out. Passage after passage seems incomprehensible because the reader remains ignorant of its background—the local, national, or international situation which called it forth; the personality and viewpoint of its author; the literary style and figures of speech popular with its first readers; the references to contemporary events and persons which, with the striking parallels between the ancient world and our own, tie it to human living then and now.

Reverent and painstaking scholars have discovered an amazing wealth of new facts about the Bible. Many of these are reported only in learned books and professional journals which most people never see.

Here Dr. Roy L. Smith, an experienced religious journalist, has interviewed the scholars, as it were, asking them the questions the average reader of the Bible would like to ask, and then has reported their answers in popular, nontechnical language.

Twenty minutes a day with one of these booklets will open a fascinating storehouse of knowledge and inspiration and set one on the way to becoming well informed about the Bible.

A Leader's Guide for the Know Your Bible Series, by Charles E. Schofield.

The Author

ROY L. SMITH is known throughout America as a gifted speaker, writer, editor, columnist, and one of Protestantism's leading ministers. From 1948 to 1952 he was clerical publishing agent of The Methodist Church. From 1940 to 1948 he served as editor of the Christian Advocate, which under his leadership attained the largest circulation of any Protestant denominational organ.

Dr. Smith is the author of numerous books and several nationally syndicated columns. Among his other books are: Stewardship Studies, New Light from Old Lamps, and Making a Go of Life.

The Editorial Board

An editorial board of seven outstanding Bible scholars checked each detail of these twelve "Studies." These editors are:

ELMER A. LESLIE, Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature at Boston University School of Theology; CHARLES E. SCHOFIELD, the late Editor of Adult Publications, Board of Education, The Methodist Church, and former President of Southwestern College; C. E. FORLINES, late President and Professor of Systematic Theology, Westminster Theological Seminary; FRANK GLENN LANKARD, Dean of Baldwin-Wallace College; PAUL NEFF GARBER, a Bishop of The Methodist Church, formerly Dean of the School of Religion, Duke University; W. A. SMART, Professor Emeritus of Biblical Theology, Candler School of Theology, Emory University; EUGENE B. HAWK, Dean Emeritus of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University.

"If I were a pastor again, I would start now to organize conversational groups in my church for study of these books. Would they learn? Would they be fascinated? Would they!"—
Charles Clayton Morrison.
