

BROWN ALUMNI MONTHLY

 1921 - 1922 ***

BROWN

ALUMNI MONTHLY

ON THE HILL	The Editor	261
Our Architecture—Rowing at Brown—University and Women's College
THE SECRET OF SUCCESS	Harry Lyman Koopman	264
SWIMMING AND STRENGTH TESTS	Leslie E. Swain	265
CORPORATION AFFAIRS		266
JUNIOR WEEK EVENTS		267
THE ASSOCIATED ALUMNI	Henry T. Samson	268
A Publicity Recommendation—News from the Clubs
WHO'S WHO IN PITTSBURGH		272
BASEBALL SEASON OPENS		273
THE WOMEN'S COLLEGE		275
ON THE CAMPUS		276
BRUNONIANS FAR AND NEAR		277

Published monthly, August and September excepted, by the Brown Alumni Magazine Co. at Brown University, Providence, R. I. Entered at the Post Office at Providence, R. I., as second-class matter under the law of March 3, 1879

TEN CENTS A COPY

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

Reasons Why This Bank Should be YOUR Bank

Sound management, large resources, a substantial capital and surplus are some of the reasons why you can entrust your account with the Industrial Trust Company. You are assured far-sighted attention to all your banking requirements not alone in Providence but in every part of the State as well. You will have at your command the counsel of men qualified by training and experience to give valuable counsel on all financial matters.

Industrial Trust Co.

Member of Federal Reserve System

Those desiring Convenient, Safe and Progressive Banking Facilities can find such at

THE

Mechanics National Bank

Opp. Railroad Station and City Hall

DIRECTORS

Charles C. Harrington
Herbert W. Rice
Hugh F. MacColl
H. Edward Thurston
E. Tudor Gross
Charles C. Marshall
J. Palmer Barstow

Blackstone Canal National Bank

20 Market Square

Capital Stock $500,000
Surplus and
Undivided Profits over $700,000

ALBERT R. PLANT, PRESIDENT
HERBERT F. HINCKLEY, VICE-PRESIDENT
CHARLES P. BROWN, CASHIER

Directors

Herbert F. Hinckley	John B. Branch
Edwin M. Dodd	Albert R. Plant
C. Moulton Stone	William A. Viall
Charles H. Merriman, Jr.	Fletcher H. Mason
Frank C. Field	Henry S. Chafee

The Businesslike Way

The virtues of being businesslike are not confined merely to the office or the store, but extend as well to household and personal affairs.

Personal Affairs

Handling personal and household finances through a special checking account is a practice that no truly businesslike person can forego.

Peace of Mind

Keeping any large sum of money in the house or in one's pockets is actually inviting loss or theft. When money is in the bank its owner need never worry about its safety.

Convenience

Paying all bills by check saves making personal trips around the city when to do so would perhaps be most inconvenient. Furthermore, the cancelled checks and stubs furnish a record which makes household bookkeeping almost automatic.

Open a Household Account

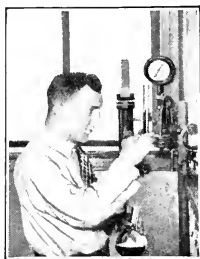

This Company welcomes the personal or household account, handling it in every detail with the same careful attention that characterizes its handling of the largest commercial account.

15 WESTMINSTER ST.

Member Federal Reserve System

NATIONAL
U.S.A.
DYES

One of many fastness tests

THE possibilities of coal-tar are not yet exhausted; there are still in the unrevealed crypts of Nature unsuspected possibilities of even greater importance and usefulness than those which have been uncovered.

The chemical student at college, and the more advanced investigator who has already passed out into the ranks of commercial activity have still fields of accomplishment before them which are well worth the earnest and enthusiastic attention of those who desire to serve mankind, and leave a lasting monument to their own ability.

It is in the hands of our chemists that the welfare and contentment of the people chiefly rest.

National Aniline & Chemical Company, Inc.

New York
Boston

Chicago
Hartford

Charlotte
Montreal

Toronto
Providence

Philadelphia
San Francisco

BROWN ALUMNI MONTHLY

VOL. XXII

PROVIDENCE, MAY, 1922

NO. 10

ON THE HILL

EXTRAORDINARY praise has been bestowed on the fine new Harkness Memorial Quadrangle at Yale University and particularly its chief tower, which rises most beautifully in a tapering mass of lacelike tracery to the high sky.

It is hardly too much to say that this marks the farthest advance of American collegiate architecture up to the present time. In the minds of those of us whose colleges are committed to the Colonial and Georgian type of building it raises serious questions. Were we wise in adopting the less lofty, the less spiritual, form? Can any Georgian-housed university be so impressive in its externals as one that borrows the beauties of European Medievalism, adapts them to modern scholastic uses and gives them an individualistic American touch without violation of the historic Gothic principle?

This is not an easy question to answer. The University of Virginia has built itself a dignified habitat along Colonial lines and on a monumental scale. Other instances of similar success will come to mind. But at Brown we have carried out our Colonial scheme in haphazard fashion, adding structures at intervals of several years and failing to secure any considerable impression of architectural unity.

For example, our main approach from down town is flanked on one side by the ponderous classic walls of the John Hay Library—a dignified edifice in white marble; while on the other side of the street is the comparatively diminutive Administration Building done in red brick in the American grammar-school fashion. Surely here our intention of having a harmonious architectural plan fell down.

Perhaps some day a fine marble structure will occupy the present site of the Administration Building. It would be entirely practicable to move the latter to a site farther south on Prospect street or to one on George street—if we owned the land.

* * *

THE Alumni Monthly for many years has favored a resumption of rowing at Brown. The Providence Journal takes a similar stand. And the Brown Daily Herald says:

The Providence Journal prints the news that Harvard has eighteen crews practicing daily on the Charles River, at the same time noting that Brown has not a single shell on the Seekonk. Every day we read that this college and that is calling out candidates for crew practice, and as we glance at the trophies which Brown oarsmen of former years have left behind them we wonder why the university completely overlooks this popular sport to-day.

When rowing was included in the athletic activities of Brown, it always enjoyed great popularity, and the consensus of student sentiment about the campus assures that a return of this sport would be highly welcome.

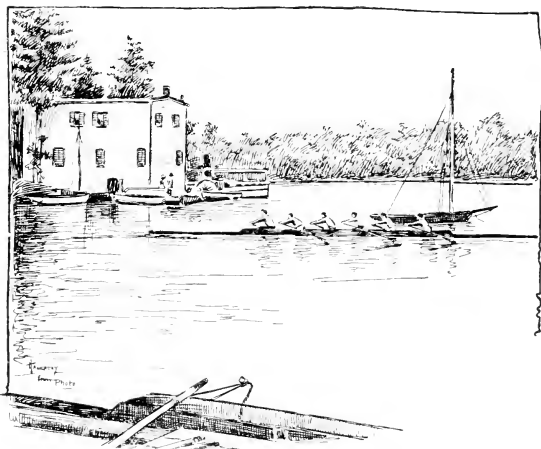

Brown was a much smaller university than it is to-day when rowing was abandoned because of the prohibitive cost. To be sure, there is considerable expense in maintaining a crew and there can be no income. But other colleges as small as Brown maintain crews, depending upon the revenue from other sports to defray expenses. If the local athletic association is not in a position to finance this new sport entirely, it seems that the necessary money could be subscribed in some way.

The return of rowing to Brown does not merely mean that the college would be represented in another field of sport. It is the policy of the university to place as many men as possible in athletics, for the physical condition of the college man is we get two rival boats on the See-konk, the better. There are boats enough to be had for little or nothing, and men enough to fill them.

Rowing is becoming a more popular college sport every year. Tech now has a crew. Princeton has eighteen crews in practice. To say that it is impracticable to start rowing on a modest scale at Brown is regarded with importance equal to his scholastic standing. Rowing would permit many men not now engaged in sports to go in for athletics.

A WINNING BROWN CREW

Our Freshman six of the class of 1873 who beat Harvard, Yale and Amherst fifty-two years ago at Worcester

We do not mean, necessarily, that Brown should be represented at once by a 'Varsity crew. It would probably be difficult to place a successful outfit on the river this spring. But, should rowing be introduced this year as an interclass sport, it would provide a healthful, invigorating form of exercise, and would throw light on material which might make up a 'Varsity team next year.

To this we say amen. The sooner equivalent to confessing a strange inferiority to our neighbors, the rowing colleges of America.

The preparatory schools, with resources much inferior to ours, are introducing the sport. Many, indeed, have maintained it for years.

And many desirable boys would come from them to Brown if we included aquatics on our athletic calendar.

Around no other college sport does such romance and sentiment cling.

No other has evoked such traditions and such balladry.

Brown's first crew was formed in 1857, only five years after the first race between Yale and Harvard. In that year, as Judge George T. Brown '73 has written, "the calm waters of the Seekonk were made to ripple with the oars of these jolly tars. In 1859 at Worcester Brown rowed Yale and Harvard. Handicapped by her cumbersome lapstreat the Atalanta, she was beaten by the rival shells, which weighed 150 pounds less. Again in 1860 Brown rowed against Yale and Harvard, but as her shell weighed only 112 pounds it went to pieces in the race.

From these remote beginnings a rowing system grew up after the war, and Brown won one glorious victory on Quinsigamond. What a pity the sport died out in the middle eighties.

But it is never too late to mend. Brown must some day become a boating college again. We look forward hopefully to the renewed plash of brown-tipped oars on the Seekonk and to a renewal of the old charm and poesy that no other student sport has ever awakened.

* * *

SINCE the preceding editorial was written, a movement for the resumption of rowing at Brown has taken shape. The initiative comes from Donald L. Grant of Brookline, Mass., who formerly rowed on the Huntington School crew and afterward started an eight at Tufts College, where he was an undergraduate for a year before coming to Brown.

A meeting was held in the Brown Union Auditorium on April seventh, concerning which the Herald says:

A crowd of crew enthusiasts gathered in the Union Auditorium in response to a call issued by the Herald Thursday for a meeting of undergraduates who are interested in reestablishing rowing in Brown. The meeting took the form of a general discussion, and several men addressed the men informally, each one offering a plan whereby rowing interests could be furthered. The general trend of the discussion was towards forming a University Boat Club in connection with a local rowing organization which would allow a large number to enjoy the sport as they saw fit rather than simply selecting a few men and attempting to organize a crew.

It was pointed out that the rowing movement could not expect to get support from the athletic association or the alumni financially in the immediate future because of their efforts being entirely taken up with plans for a new gymnasium and proposals for a new athletic field. But it was believed that a movement backed entirely by students would do much to prepare the way for the sport in the future, and immediately make Brown a rowing university, if not one which supported an eight oared 'Varsity crew.

D. L. Grant '23 told briefly what had been done at Tufts recently to establish the sport, and he was followed by several other men of rowing experience who all presented valuable suggestions.

It was finally decided to place the entire matter in the hands of a committee which should communicate with Dr. Marvel, director of athletics, Dr. Arnold, director of non-athletic activities, and Professor Hill, chairman of committee on student organizations. The following men were appointed on the committee: R. S. Brown '22, D. L. Grant '23, L. M. Hinson '25, and M. H. Imlay '25.

Thus a real beginning has been made toward a Brown rowing system. We rejoice in it.

* * *

ONE of the perplexing questions that is sure to demand a careful settlement in the future is that of the relations of the Women's College to the Men's Undergraduate Department of the University.

At the present time it is officially the Women's College in Brown University, and it will continue, of course, as an integral part of the larger institution.

But will it retain its present name or acquire a distinctive one like Radcliffe at Harvard and Barnard at Columbia? And will the tendency be toward a larger consolidation of men's and women's classes or in the direction of a more complete segregation?

In last month's issue of this magazine we printed an interesting expression of opinion from President Chapin S. Newhard of the Senior class, who represented the student body at the recent meeting of the Advisory Board of the Alumni. Mr. Newhard said:

"During the past two years, and more particularly the last few months, there has been a noticeable increase in the seriousness of the Pembroke problem. Brown has never been co-educational—it has prided itself on the fact—and in the past there has always been a decided barrier between the two institutions. Gradually, however, this barrier has been broken down until to-day we are on the verge of having, from all external appearances, a co-educational University. Girls are seen all over the campus—girls are mixed with the men in many classes—and girls pack the John Hay Library, going there, as one of them said, only to make engagements. As you can readily guess, the trouble is that the inmates of the Women's College have become too attractive, and the men have consequently weakened until we have the present situation. Naturally there is a very strong feeling against this invasion—not because of dislike for the individuals but because it is well known that co-education weakens an institution—and sentiment urges that every means be taken to entirely separate the two institutions. The men do not want the women on the campus—they do not want them in their classes. As Harvard has its Radcliffe and Columbia its Barnard, so should Brown have its Pembroke."

We believe that graduates of the Women's College should receive the Brown University diploma—not its mere equivalent, but we agree with the main views expressed by Mr. Newhard. There can be no doubt that they represent the general judgment of undergraduate men and alumni alike.

Of course the two colleges cannot be kept entirely distinct unless more endowment is forthcoming for the Women's College, but in the meantime, in our opinion, which we are confident reflects that of our constituency, every possible effort should be made to minimize the coalescing process of which the president of the Senior class complains.

• • •

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

By Harry Lyman Koopman, Librarian of Brown University

From the Colby Almanus

BABE RUTH has broken his previous wonderful record. Among the various reasons that have been given for his success, no one has ventured to suggest luck. Common sense tells us that there must be a reason within the domain of control. A year ago a journalist pronounced optimism to be the ultimate cause of the famous batsman's home runs; but, surely, to clothe optimism with such powers is to darken counsel. Wilkins Micawber was an optimist. All the optimism that Babe Ruth needs is enough to persuade him that he has a fighting chance to make a four-base hit. He must, of course, have strength and quickness of eye and muscle, but others have these qualities and yet make no such record as he. What is the secret? Let us see if we can find an illustration in another field.

The late Professor Genung of Amherst wrote an extremely clear and beautiful hand. When asked to reveal the secret of his penmanship, he replied that it was simply never to write any other way. That is to say, whenever he took up his pen it was, in point of calligraphy, to make a home run. So with Babe Ruth, he goes to the bat resolved to do nothing less than make a one-hundred per cent. success. That success being within the range of his powers, he achieves it with a frequency that astonishes the world.

Now, what I am interested in is not Babe Ruth but success in the larger ventures of life, and particularly, for the moment, academic success. It is perfectly certain that we cannot all match the penmanship of Professor Genung any more than we can rival him in grace of style as an essayist. Not every ball-player, even professional, has the physical qualities necessary to make him a Babe Ruth. We cannot all register one hundred per cent. From this fact two conclusions should be drawn: one, that we should not keep on in any undertaking in which we find that our best is very far below the best obtainable; the other, that we never know what our best is until we have put every ounce of our ability into the effort. No student has any business to be in college, wasting his opportunity and the time of his teachers, who is not putting his hundred per cent. into his work. To do so, to run on a low gear over one's college course, is to acquire the habit of failure or, what is even worse, of non-success. Successful men are never willing to fail in even the slightest effort. They know instinctively, if not theoretically, that they cannot afford to. They achieve success because they never let themselves fall below it.

SWIMMING AND STRENGTH TESTS

By Leslie E. Swain

There have been published in the Brown Alumni Monthly from time to time interesting statistics on the number of entrants to college, their geographic distribution, their church preferences, their psychological tests, their scholastic averages by fraternities, etc. I have found these interesting, especially when comparisons have been made with other years. The Physical Training Department has prepared statistics which it believes will be of interest to the alumni with regard to the entrants in their strength tests and in their swimming tests.

Three-hundred and fifteen swimming tests were passed without lessons up to the beginning of the winter gymnasium work. In the 100 yard swim the average time made was two minutes, eight and seven-tenths seconds. It is interesting to compare this with Davy Jones's intercollegiate record in the 100 yard swim of 55 3-5 seconds. In the 50 yard back stroke swim the average time was 1 minute, 26 4-10 seconds.

In this event, Jones's time, which is the Brown and the Colgate Hoyt pool record, is 32 seconds. 54.9 per cent. of these tests in the 100 yard swim were average or better; in the 50 yard back stroke, 64.4 per cent were average or better.

The three best times in the 100 yard swim were made by the following:

S. Metzger, Jr., '25, 1 minute, 9 seconds.

T. K. Ferry '25, 1 minute, 11 seconds.

E. B. Kelly, Jr., '25, 1 minute, 13 2-5 seconds.

The three best times in the 50 yard back stroke were made by the following:

B. M. Lease '24, 45 2-5 seconds.

A. Aikens '25, 48 seconds.

W. E. Fanning '25, 48 seconds.

All these men worked on the swimming squad with Coach Charlie Huggins.

S. Metzger has shown vast improvement and assisted materially in the victories of the team.

Complete time records have not been kept for the elementary swimming tests before, therefore no accurate comparisons are possible with other years.

Professor Fred W. Marvel has just completed the strength tests for the new men. It is most gratifying to find the whole class up to a higher physical standing than that of last year. The average strength test is 574.8. But only 47.5 per cent. of the class is above this average. The average of the ten strongest men in 937.3. Last year's class had an average of only 540.4 in their strength test, but 57.1 per cent. were above the average. The average of the ten strongest men last year was only 862.8. This looks encouraging for Brown athletics for the next three years. The three highest men in this year's tests are:

A. Eckstein '25, 1025.9.

V. S. Ellington '25, 1024.1.

M. H. Imlay '25, 976.1.

The firsts in the individual events of the strength tests are well divided and are as follows:

Weight, R. B. Hazard '25, 95.8 kilograms.

Height, W. B. Weicker '25, 199.7 centimeters.

Lung capacity, P. L. Voelker '25, 390 cubic centimeters.

Back, J. H. Pohlman '25, 230 kilograms.

Legs, V. S. Ellington '25, 450 kilograms.

Right forearm, W. W. Martin '25, 89 kilograms.

Left forearm, M. H. Imlay '25, 80 kilograms.

Push ups, L. R. Brooks '24, 19.

Pull ups, A. E. Kilpatrick '25, 19.

Total of push ups and pull ups, L. R. Brooks 33.

CORPORATION AFFAIRS

The monthly meeting of the Advisory and Executive Committee was held in the President's office on Friday, March 10, at 2.30 p. m. The report of the Superintendent of Grounds was presented and placed on file.

A report was presented from the Committee composed of members of the Corporation and alumni, on New Gymnasium and Athletic Fields. This report showed prolonged study and careful compilation of data in over fifty institutions. Certain definite recommendations were made regarding particular pieces of property and inquiries as to University policy. It was reported that progress had been made in securing a portion of the Metcalf Botanical Garden for athletic sports.

Reports were also presented from the Committee of Management of the Brown Union and the Committee on the Brown Union Dining-room, from which it appeared that the Committee of Management proposes to purchase the "Sodette" and conduct it as a part of the dining-room.

The Committee on Plans and Policies presented a partial report.

The Comptroller presented the University budget for 1922-23. Action was taken on many items and others deferred to a special meeting to be held two weeks later.

A special meeting of the Advisory and Executive Committee was held in the President's office, Friday, March 24. The report of the Superintendent and Comptroller was presented and placed on file.

The Treasurer requested authority to sign certain documents regarding the title to certain pieces of property.

It was voted to return to the use of parchment in preparing University diplomas, those diplomas having been printed on heavy paper during the War, when it was practically impossible to secure parchment.

The proper uses and arrangements for sabbatic years taken by members of the Faculty were discussed at length.

A request for the printing of a new bulletin regarding the Engineering Department was referred to the Committee on University Printing.

The possible sites for new buildings were discussed. The need of a Dean of Freshmen was explained and discussed.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to the budget for the year 1922-23.

The regular monthly meeting of the Advisory and Executive Committee of the Corporation was held in the President's office on Friday, April 14th, at 2.30 p. m.

The report of the Superintendent of Buildings was presented and placed on file. A report from the Committee on Larger Provision for Physical Training and Athletic Sports was presented from the chairman, Paul C. DeWolf. The committee was not ready to make specific recommendations regarding a new gymnasium, but presented detailed recommendations regarding development of athletic fields. A report from the Committee on Scholarships was presented from Professor Huntington, chairman.

The President reported that John Carter Brown Woods would soon present to the University a portrait of his father, Marshall Woods, and that Mr. Abbate, the sculptor of the bust of Dante, had presented to the John Hay Library a fine plaster cast entitled "Fiat Voluntas Tua."

The President called attention to the need of more space for the Romance Department, the present seminaries and office space being quite inadequate. It was voted to fix up larger quarters for this department during the summer.

$100 was voted as an appropriation for the Employment Bureau of the Brown Christian Association.

It was voted to authorize the Library Committee to transfer the Corthell Library to the Engineering Building, in order to facilitate its larger use and thus carry out more fully the purposes of the donor—this to be done with the consent of the heirs.

It was voted that the rules governing the absence of professors for a sabbatic year be so modified that in exceptional cases and under definite restrictions a professor may be absent, not, as hitherto, for a whole year on half salary, but for a half year on full salary, provided this can be done without expense to the University.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in discussing various University properties and their development.

JUNIOR WEEK EVENTS

The Junior Week festivities will occur on May 11, 12 and 13. Junior Week will begin a thé dansant in the Union on Thursday afternoon, May 11. The committee has paid particular attention to this part of the program, and every effort is being made to make it a pleasing opening event.

Greatest interest in the three days' festivities will centre in Sayles Hall on Friday night, May 12, when the Junior Prom will occur.

The Junior Frolic, which was inaugurated last year by the Class of 1922, will be held again this year. The Frolic comes at the end of Junior Week, May 13, and will last from 9:15 to 12. It will be held in Sayles Hall.

There will be two ball games in Junior Week, one on Friday and the other on Saturday. The first game will be with the University of Virginia and will begin the programme for Friday. Following the game will be the Prom Dinner at the Hotel Dreyfus and the Promenade in Sayles. The other game, which is with the University of Pittsburgh, begins the program for Saturday afternoon.

THE ASSOCIATED ALUMNI OF BROWN UNIVERSITY

OFFICERS

Edward H. Weeks, 1893, President
 William C. Greene, 1875, Vice President
 Charles R. Adams, 1880, Vice President
 Ira Barrows, 1863, Vice President
 Henry G. Clark, 1907, Secretary
 E. Tudor Gross, 1901, Treasurer

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Edward H. Weeks, 1893
 E. Tudor Gross, 1901
 Henry G. Clark, 1907
 J. Palmer Barstow, 1902
 George B. Bullock, 1905
 Arthur W. Poiskien, 1902
 Walter C. Wyckoff, 1895

HENRY T. SAMSON, 1910, ALUMNI MANAGER

This Department is maintained by the Association and devoted to the interests of a wide-awake and working organization of Brown alumni. All news and communications should be sent to the Associated Alumni of Brown University, John Hay Library, Providence, R. I.

A PUBLICITY RECOMMENDATION

At the April meeting of the executive committee, Associated Alumni of Brown University, the following recommendation was passed unanimously and forwarded to the President and Corporation of the University:

"To satisfy the expressed demands of several thousand alumni who are exceedingly interested in Brown activities and who scan the newspapers daily for some mention of their Alma Mater—and to centralize efforts on the part of various University departments which will be benefited by adequate publicity,

"The executive committee, Associated Alumni of Brown University, respectfully recommends to the President and Corporation of the University the establishment of a permanent publicity department under the direction of a trained specialist in publicity work, a man who will cooperate with the University and the alumni in keeping the public properly informed on the needs, problems and achievements of the University."

NEW YORK BROWN CLUB

With the names of John W. Mayhew '09 of Haiphong, Indo China, and Joseph Cooke Smith '87 of London, England, on the club roster and the recent admission to membership of Carleton Hale '96 of Vera Cruz, Ver., Mexico, the New York Brown Club has become a factor in the lives of Brown men not alone in New York city or even the United States, but all over the world.

The fraternity and class luncheons and dinners are proving so successful in renewing old friendships and good fellowship that those present at the first of the various affairs held unanimously decided to meet regularly every month.

The Alpha Deltas started off the series with a luncheon on March 1st, which was so thoroughly enjoyed that the second luncheon on April 5th found a considerably larger number attending. All out of town Alpha Deltas are heartily enjoined to plan their New York trips so as to include the first Wednesday of the month. Those present at the luncheons included: Daniel W. Abercrombie, Jr., '10, Maxwell Barus '10, Judson E. Benjamin '08, Homer M. Clark '07, Clarkson A. Collins '76, Clarkson A. Collins, Jr., '08, Lefferts M. Dashiell '97, Evan Gwynee '21, F. R. Hazard, Jr., '14, C. S. Hoyt '01, Solon C. Kelley, Jr. '17, Rev. Charles E. Knowles '91, Francis B. Richards '97, H. A. Richards '93, Rev. Willard S. Richardson '94, Melvin E. Sawin '14, Brenton G. Smith '11, Harry F. Smith '14, Earl H. Walker '14, and Laurence S. Walker '10.

The class of 1919 met Saturday, March 18, and as an aid to forgetful memories, although those who came could never think of forgetting to come to all of the subsequent get-togethers, the nineteenth of every month was set apart for class dinner at the club. Brothers George and Mills Harris, Herbert Hastings, Elmer Hering, Samuel Mann, Don Millar, Harlow and Russell Peters, Francis Rich, Howard Tindall, Thomas Watson and Stanley Warner were surely all glad to see each other again.

Jasper Wight also got out such an enthusiastic crowd of 1917 men for dinner on April 6th that it was rumored they couldn't tear themselves away until the wee small hours. All out of town Seventeeners are urged, if they don't want to miss too many of the few real good times there are, to be in New York and at the club house on the 17th of every month—subject to change with notice. Those who helped make the evening a lively one included: Kenneth Atwater, Edgar Benson, James Fernald, Solon Kelley, Jr., Hugh MacNair, Charles Peckerman, Leslie Taber, William LeRoy Wedemeyer and E. T. T. Williams.

First place, however, belongs to the D. U.'s, that is, for number in attendance, there being an absolute tie for first place in spirit and enthusiasm for all things Brown. Twenty-two D. U.'s lunched together on Saturday, April eighth, and decided they could not wait a whole month to see each other again, so all D. U.'s please set aside the second and fourth Saturdays of every month for luncheon at the club. Those who came at Fred Murphy's call included Robert L. Barrows '03, James O. Bullock '70, Randolph Burgess '12, Newton G. Chase '09, Rev. William S. Chase '81, Clayton S. Cooper '94, William B. Critcherson, Jr., '19, Elliot H. Falk '15, Herbert S. Familton '23, James G. Fernald '17, Elmer Hering '19, Ralph Hurlin '12, Reber Johnson '14, Paul Kingsley '15, Carroll B. Larrabee '18, William Satchell Learned '97, Donald Millar '19, Professor Arthur W. Pope '03, Rev. S. R. Warburton '98, William E. Winchester '98 and John Young '95.

Orman E. Ryther '87 fittingly celebrated his birthday on March 31 by lunching at the club. He is now living with his son-in-law, M. M. Purdy '12, at Rye, New York.

The Rev. Charles Francis Potter '08 of the West Side Unitarian Church, Cathedral Parkway, New York, arranged a special musical program by the Brown University Orchestra on Easter Sunday.

At one of Ray West's famous oriental studio parties, the engagement of Dorothy M. Cook of Madison, Wisconsin, to Howard Tindall '19, A. M., was announced. Original poems and songs written for the occasion by college friends contributed highly to the entertainment. Miss Cook, who was an Alpha Phi, at Wisconsin, '17, has contributed articles to the Delineator and other women's magazines.

All the members of the club who were able to do so came to a luncheon in honor of Dr. W. W. Keen '59 of Philadelphia, on Monday, April 24th. Dr. Keen, than whom there is no more loyal and enthusiastic Brown man alive, was delighted with the progress the club had made in the last few months.

Although the marriage of Francis P. Davis '13 to Miss Marion Howe, on March 11th has taken him to Roselle, N. J., and away from the club, there is still a waiting list of Brown men desiring permanent accommodations at the house. However, transients are always welcome, in fact urged to take advantage of the privileges offered by the club while in New York. Among the visitors at the club during the last two months were F. E. Richmond '99, Philip DeWolf '01, William R. Champlin '01, Leon B. Savacol '14, A. L. Rodman '98, E. A. Maynard '95, W. Kinsley Low '01, Stuart Forstall '21, Gilbert F. Merrill '22, J. G. Hill '24, Chapin S. Newhard '22, Donald C. Rubel '23, W. Stanley Holt '22, Earl W. Harrington '14, Professor James A. Hall '08, A. A. Greene '80, Harry W. Rockwell '03, Alan J. Young '10, D. C. Eggleston '05, Theodore Francis Green '87, J. D. Murphy '16, C. A. Maitland '23, F. A. Longee '21, W. Robert Erickson '19, William Posey '22, Donald S. Grant '24, R. M. Henshaw '25, George Manly '24, R. C. Litchfield '23, J. G. Campbell '24, Earl M. Medbery '20, A. E. Lindstrom '20, George S. Ellis '94, R. G. Sykes '21, O. E. Ryther '87, H. W. Keigwin '79, George B. Francis '04, J. J. Riley '16, P. L. Chipman '08, William G. Lathrop '89, Christie E. Cuddeback '21, Robert Forster '03, Z. R. Bliss '18, Rev. Charles F. Potter '08, J. R. Hamill, Robert G. Noyes '21, Carleton Goff '24, J. J. Csepely '21.

Improvements are still being added to the club house. Two attractive floor lamps enhance the coziness of the lounge, and the lobby has been made over into a very business-like office. The staff of the club has been greatly augmented by the addition of an assistant secretary, Miss Elsa Volckmann. Miss Volckmann has undertaken the work with much enthusiasm and will greatly appreciate the assistance and cooperation of all Brown men.

A great work for Brown is being done here. The success of the club to date has been exceptional but much remains to be done. More members are needed. There is a certain point in membership which it is hoped will be reached soon, when, it is confidently predicted, Brown will have one of the big college clubs in New York.

BOSTON

Carleton D. Morse, who was elected treasurer of the Sons of Brown in Boston and vicinity at the last annual dinner, has resigned his position with Bedell and Company in that city and is to become sales manager for the Guaranty Company of Philadelphia. At the May meeting and luncheon a successor to Mr. Morse may be chosen.

At the April luncheon Professor George Grafton Wilson '86 spoke on the Washington Conference for the Limitation of Armaments. Fifty-Seven Brown men attended this luncheon and were delighted with the report on the conference by Professor Wilson, who was in touch with the proceedings as an advisor to the American delegation.

One of the Schoolboy Trophies is to be awarded by the Boston Brown men to the championship baseball team of the Mystic Valley League of high schools. Arrangements for the award of this trophy are being made by President Cushman of the Boston organization.

Boston's final luncheon of the season was to be held at the City Club on May 3.

WORCESTER

On April 6th the Worcester Brown Club met for the first time in several years, at the University Club. Gardner K. Hudson '96 of Fitchburg presided at the meeting.

Charles H. Pinkham '22, member of the Cammarian Club and leader of the Brown orchestra, addressed the Worcester men on the subject of "What Brown Undergraduates are Thinking About." Professor Crosby of the faculty entertained the members with humorous readings and the University quartette furnished music.

Alumni Manager Samson announced that one of the Schoolboy Trophies donated to the Associated Alumni would be awarded by the Worcester Club. This year the cup in question goes to Worcester Academy, winners in the annual New England Preparatory School meet under the auspices of the Massachusetts High School League.

When and how this cup will be presented by the Worcester men will be decided in the near future by the officers of the club.

New officers elected at the April 6th meeting are: President, Clarence H. Brigham '99; vice-president, A. W. Hinds '87; secretary-treasurer, George E. Marble '00. Members of the new executive committee will be W. H. Whiting '01, George B. Church '99, George A. Gaskill '98 and E. T. Wilson, Jr., '16.

Clarence B. Howard '22, a Worcester boy who is now at Brown, told of his experiences as an undergraduate at Dartmouth and complimented the Dartmouth Club of Worcester on the manner in which it welcomes back Dartmouth undergraduates who are home for the holidays.

Although no plans were made at this meeting for the future program of the Worcester Brown men, the executive committee and officers are expected to start the year off in the fall with regular meetings at which Brown men in this strong New England centre may meet and talk over affairs on the Hill.

Those who attended the annual dinner are:

Gardner K. Hudson '96, Benj. E. Martin '94, Charles B. Elder '77, Walter W. Clark '99, Stuart R. Bugbee '09, Samuel Beeber '08, Sherman A. Allen '03, Ray W. Greene '83, Charles L. Nichols '72, Robert C. Dexter '12, E. T. Wilson, Jr., '16, A. W. Hinds '87, Winfield H. Whiting '01, John A. Clough '99, John E. Kelly '15, George E. Marble '00, Foster B. Whitehead '17, Lloyd Parker Zellers '20, Alan N. MacDougall '20, George A. Gaskill '98, Louis E. Feingold '04, George D. Church '99, Hobart A. Whitman '95, Clarence S. Brigham '99, Fred D. Aldrich '95.

PORTLAND

George C. Wing, Jr., '00 of Auburn was re-elected president of the Brown University Alumni of Western Maine at the annual dinner and reunion at the Falmouth Hotel. Other officers chosen were: First vice-president, Judge Clifford E. McGlauffin; second vice-president, Henry Cleaves Sullivan; secretary, Fred H. Gabbi; treasurer, Thomas J. Burrage, M. D. These officers also constitute the executive board. Mr. Gabbi was also elected delegate to the alumni advisory board of the university. The association voted to affiliate with the Associated Alumni.

The members enjoyed an informal social time previous to the dinner, which was served in one of the small dining rooms. President Wing opened the after-dinner exercises, which took the form of a frank discussion of what the alumni in Maine can do for the university and what the alumni organization may expect from the university.

Henry T. Samson, alumni manager, was the guest of the evening and told of what is being done in various parts of the country through interested alumni and alumni organizations to interest high school students in Brown. He urged the cooperation of the local organization and some of the efforts in this direction already bearing fruit were referred to by members present.

The following were in attendance:

George C. Wing, Jr., '00 of Auburn, Henry T. Samson '19 of Providence, Major Henry S. Burrage, D. D. '61, Judge Clifford E. McGlaughlin '98, Fred H. Gabbi '02, Frank M. Mathewson, Captain C. D. Hindle '12, Fort Williams; Francis D. O'Connor '12, George S. Ellis '94, Arthur B. Brownell '92, Henry Cleaves Sullivan '01, Newton C. Reed '03, Thomas J. Burrage, M. D. '98, and Walter R. Cole '20, all of Portland.

This Portland meeting was one of the most interesting Brown gatherings which could possibly have been held. Interest in the University and its problems was uppermost in the minds of those present and plans for the future activity of the Western Maine alumni were made which should result in renewed efforts and more frequent meetings in the future. Already Fred Gabbi, secretary of the organization, is assisting in many ways in stimulating co-operation and preserving contact with the alumni office.

PITTSBURGH

There are rumblings of encouraging activity in the Smoky City.

Wiley Marble writes that the members of the Pittsburgh Brown Club met at the Union Club in that city on April 10th and made plans for the adoption of a constitution and by-laws and for regular luncheons of the club on the first Thursday in each month. When Wiley says that the luncheons are to be "regular" the Brown men in Pittsburgh know what he means.

At the April 10th meeting, President William I. King '01 appointed Messrs. Crane and Curry to draft and submit a constitution and made recommendations on the matter of dues. The club's sub-Freshman committee rendered an informal report at this meeting.

Pittsburgh is the second club on the circuit to send in a Who's Who list to the alumni office.

NEW BEDFORD

Brown alumni in New Bedford held their annual dinner on the evening of February 3d at the New Bedford Hotel, with twenty-three Brown men present. At the annual meeting the following officers were elected to hold office until the next annual meeting, which will be held in October of this year:

President, Frank H. Gifford '81; Vice-President, Harry H. Burton '16; Secretary-Treasurer, Howard McPeck '19; Executive Committee, Charles W. Barney and Theodore P. Baylies. Harry H. Burton and Theodore Baylies were elected to serve on a sub-Freshmen committee.

HARTFORD

A recent meeting of the Hartford Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Wheeler, 55 North Main street, West Hartford. Matters of interest to the club were discussed at this gathering, which was presided over by President Frank O. Jones.

Wilbur Cary writes that the meeting on June 2nd will be at St. John's Rectory, Warehouse Point, at the invitation of Dr. George DeW. Dowling. The club voted to invite the members of the Connecticut Valley Brown Club to this meeting. The first fall meeting of the Hartford men will be held on October 9th.

PROVIDENCE

In addition to the regular routine tasks which the Providence Brown Club has set for itself, it had supervision over the sub-Freshman banquet which was held on April 29th and the Musical Club Concert held at the Churchill House on May 3d. Much of the credit for the success of both of these University functions belongs to the members of the Providence Club.

The officers of the Providence Brown Club are: President, T. F. I. McDonnell '91; vice-president, Clinton C. White '00; secretary, James I. Shepard '14; treasurer, Charles P. Sisson '11; executive committee, Paul C. DeWolf '05, chairman; Edward H.

Weeks '93, Byron S. Watson '97, Robert S. Emerson '97, E. Tudor Gross '01, Edward K. Aldrich '02, John H. Collier '06, George Hurley '07, Henry G. Clark '07, Earl B. Dane '11, W. E. Sprackling '12, Ira L. Letts '13, Maurice A. Wolf '14, E. Pulver Cook '14, Earl M. Medbery '14, Frederick A. Ballou, Jr. '16, W. B. Farnsworth '17, Robert Foote '17.

WHO'S WHO IN PITTSBURGH

Though Brown was founded for the purpose of turning out ministers, they haven't all been of the Baptist faith. We have two here, Rev. Royal Jessup '04 at the Shady Avenue Baptist Church, and Rev. Floyd Carr '01 at the Wilkesburg Baptist Church. Judson Crane's father, the Rev. A. M. Crane '69, is a retired clergyman, and Rev. Irving T. Gumb '15 is doing student work at the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Tech, and is connected with Shadyside Presbyterian Church.

Naturally a good percentage of our membership is in the steel industry. In the Carnegie Steel Company we have an example of the utmost efficiency; R. A. Marble '05 is an engineer in the Sales Department, who sells Carnegie products after Leon F. Payne '07, assisted by "Pat" Curry '18, has passed on the most vital thing these days, credit; then "Ed" Hill '15, at the Homestead plant of the company tries to make the steel right.

Carnegie isn't the only company that Brown "runs;" Howard King '01 has charge of all the stores of the Republic Iron and Steel Company and lives in Uniontown; James Warren '00 is with the Superior Steel Co., at Carnegie, Pa., while Roy H. Smith '01 is vice-president of the Falls Rivet Co., at Kent, Ohio.

Douglas Mercer '06, our past president, who has helped to put the local Brown club on the map, is vice-president and sales manager of the H. H. Robertson Co., and will sell you anything from the best roofing on earth to plant ventilators.

The Aluminum Company of America has its quota of Brown men, most of whom are in the branch offices, but has in Pittsburgh John O. Chelsey '11 (sales engineer) and Jarvis Alger '09 (assistant general sales manager) and consequently is still doing business.

The H. K. Porter Co. sounds like another family party with William E. Lincoln '68 and Kirke Porter '02 attending to most of the big things. H. K. Porter, until his death somewhat over a year ago, was one of the active members of the local club.

Joe Bliss '10 is no longer serving up out-drops and "fast ones"—instead it's everything that a modern department store has to offer. Joe is manager of the Pittsburgh branch of the W. T. Grant Co. and always looks prosperous.

Walter Frauenheim '17 is in the coal business.

Ed. Ross '07 is connected with the Travelers Insurance Co., with headquarters in the Commonwealth bldg.

H. G. Sturgis '09 is working for (and for all we know may be THE) Morning Herald, the most enterprising paper in Uniontown. "Pip" is still as large as he was when North Slater was his headquarters.

The legal profession has claimed a few of us—for there are always those who get into trouble. Judson Crane '05 sees that the youthful Blackstones are started along the right path, as head of the University Law School. It really is Dr. Crane, but he insists on an omission of titles when Brown men gather together. Harry Jones '12 manages to keep busy between his law office in McKeesport (his native village) and one in the Magee building. Harry is also somewhat huskier than his old friends in Providence were in the habit of seeing him. The third of our legal trio is our present president, William I. King '02, located in the Bowman building. It's not ethical to advertise, but they'll welcome your business.

Maynard P. White '19 commutes from Thornburg and is in the Engineering Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He is a comparative stranger here, but lost no time in getting to a Brown meeting. Another Pennsy man is Howard P. Joslin '75, who commutes from Ben Avon, where he has plenty of room for his hobby—horticulture.

The various educational institutions around Pittsburgh are fortunate enough to have numerous Brown men on the faculties. At Pitt, in addition to Judson Crane in the Law School, there is Professor Roswell Johnson, a geologist of note, in the Oil and Gas Department. At Carnegie Tech, just across Panther Hollow, Ernest V. Page '96 is in the Department of Secretarial Studies. At Allegheny High School (North Side) Professor Leon Winslow '14 is doing fine work, while Professor Ray O. Hughes '00 is working on all 12 cylinders at the Peopbody High School (East End). Incidentally, the local Brown club looks upon these two schools as the logical ones in Pittsburgh as recruiting camps for Providence.

Preston S. Moulton '06 is located away out in Birmingham, where his duties as headmaster of the Birmingham School keep him. We have, however, had the pleasure of "Pres's" company several times. Unfortunately most of "Pres's" efforts go to Pembroke—yes, it's a school for girls.

W. H. Marble '12, when not busily engaged in locating wandering Brown men, collecting dues or sending out notices, sells anything relating to combustion engineering, from forced-draft burners to stokers for the Palmer Engineering Company, 335 Fifth ave., Pittsburgh. But he's never too busy to see anything or anyone from Brown.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS

BASEBALL SCHEDULE FOR 1922

Sat., Apr. 8, Connecticut State at Providence, 4-1.

Wed., Apr. 12, Boston University at Providence, 4-5.

Sat., Apr. 15, Providence College at Providence. Rain.

Mon., Apr. 17, Columbia University at New York. Rain.

Tues., Apr. 18, New York University at New York, 12-10.

Wed., Apr. 19, University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. Rain.

Thurs., April 20, Princeton University at Princeton, 2-4.

Sat., Apr. 22, Rhode Island State at Providence, 8-4.

Tues., Apr. 25, University of Maine at Providence, 4-1.

Wed., Apr. 26, Colby College at Providence, 4-1.

Sat., Apr. 29, Bowdoin at Providence, 5-1.

Wed., May 3, Wesleyan at Middletown.

Thurs., May 6, Amherst at Amherst.

Wed., May 10, Springfield College at Providence.

Fri., May 12, University of Virginia at Providence.

Sat., May 13, University of Pittsburgh at Providence.

Wed., May 17, Yale University at New Haven.

Sat., May 20, Wesleyan College at Providence.

Wed., May 24, Yale University at Providence.

Sat., May 27, Dartmouth College at Han-Providence.

Tues., May 30, Harvard University at Providence.

Thurs., June 1, Harvard University at Cambridge.

Fri., June 2, University of Pennsylvania at Providence.

Sat., June 3, Amherst College at Providence.

Sat., June 10, Tufts at Providence.

Sat., June 17, Dartmouth College at Providence.

Wed., June 21, (Commencement Day), Trinity College at Providence. Cancelled by Trinity. No other game yet arranged.

BROWN 4, CONN. STATE 1

Connecticut State fell before Capt. Peckham's Brown nine in the initial game of the season at Andrews Field, April 8, by a 4 to 1 score. Although the Bear's margin of victory seems large, the game was a pitcher's battle between Leddy, Brown, and Laubscher of the Aggies.

Leddy deserves a great deal of credit for the showing of Brown, as he allowed but four widely scattered hits. The first three innings found him a trifle wild and in the second a wild pitch with a man on third gave the visitors their only run. In the last six innings but 19 men faced him and only once did they get a man to second base.

The play of the Brown inner defence was letter perfect and they handled 13 chances without an error. Merewether turned in the feature fielding play of the game when he went into deep right field to gather in a Texas leaguer from Brundage's bat in the opening inning. The veteran second sacker kept up his good work throughout, taking care of five putouts and three assists without resemblance of an error. Capt. Peckham had 14 chances and his play on a bad throw by Poslyn in the second inning was particularly good.

The score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Brown	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	1	x—4
Conn. State..	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—1

Runs—Trumbower, Robertson, Peckham, Kilpatrick, 4; Ryan, 1. Two-base hits—Kilpatrick. Stolen bases—Ryan, Mitchell. Sacrifice hits—Enigh 2, Brundage, Peckham. Sacrifice fly—Dugan. First base on balls—Off Leddy 3. Struck out—By Leddy 6; by Laubscher 6. Wild pitches—Leddy 2. Earned run—Brown 1. Umpire—Jack Finnell. Time—1h, 45m.

BROWN 4, BOSTON UNIVERSITY 5

Brown suffered a setback in the game with Boston University (coached by Murray, formerly of Brown) at Andrews Field, April 12. The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Boston.....	0	1	0	3	0	0	1	0	0—5
Brown.....	0	0	4	0	0	0	0	0	0—4

Hits—Off Barrett of Brown 3; off Newbauer of Brown 3; off Evans 6, off Toolan 0. Stolen bases—Williamson, Cochrane, Dugan, Robertson, Merewether. Three-base hit—Leavitt. Home run—Williamson. Sacrifice hit—Crossen. Double play—Timmons to Roane. Struck out—by Barrett 5; by Newbauer 3; by Evans 3; by Toolan 1. First base on balls—Off Barrett 2; off Evans 2; off Toolan 1. Hit by pitched ball—by Barrett—Williams 2, Crossen; by Newbauer—Roane. Hits—Brown 6, Boston 6. Errors—Brown 1, Boston 3. Time—2h. 10m.

BROWN 12, N. Y. U. 10

At Ohio Field, New York city, April 18, Brown got a long lead over New York University, scoring 9 runs to 3 in the first four innings. But New York had a batting streak in the 9th, scoring 6 times and driving Newbauer, the Brown pitcher, from the box. Leavitt came in from centrefield to relieve him. The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Brown	1	0	4	4	0	0	0	3	0—12
U. of N. Y.	0	0	0	3	1	0	0	0	6—10

Two-base hits—Peckham of Brown 2, Kneeland of Brown; Flynn, Levanduski. Three-base hit—Merewether. Home run—Leavitt of Brown. Sacrifice hits—Robertson of Brown, Merewether of Brown; George 2. Stolen bases—Kilpatrick 2, Crowther, Kneeland, all of Brown. Double plays—Brown 3. First base on balls—Off Newbauer 6; off Leavitt 1; off Bacile 3; off Kollick 1. Struck out—By Newbauer 3; by Leavitt 1; by Bacile 2; by Kollick 2. Hits—Brown 14, N. Y. U. 11. Errors—Brown 3, N. Y. U. 5. Umpire—Swanson.

BROWN 2, PRINCETON 4

At Princeton, April 20, Brown outbatted and outfielded the Princeton team, Leddy pitching for us, but Princeton bunched enough hits to win—4 runs to Brown's 2.

BROWN 8, R. I. STATE 4

At Andrews Field, April 22, with Trumbower in the box, Brown beat Rhode Island State, 8-4. Brown: 10 hits, 4 errors. R. I. State: 6 hits, 5 errors. Higgins caught for Brown.

BROWN 4, MAINE 1

At Andrews Field, April 25, Brown beat University of Maine, 4-1, Eteson of Brown pitching a hitless game.

BROWN 4, COLBY 1

On April 26 at Andrews Field, Brown

beat Colby College 4-1, Leddy pitching foring. Brown: 7 hits, 3 errors. Colby: 6 Brown and Kneeland and Higgins catch- hits, 6 errors.

THE WOMEN'S COLLEGE

PHI BETA KAPPA ELECTION

The following students have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa:

Seniors—Hope Elizabeth Burgess of Rockland, Mass.; Marion E. Craig of Springfield, Mass.; Ophelia C. Fiore of Montclair, N. J.; Nancy A. True of Providence.

Juniors—Mary S. Brown of Springfield, Mass.; Ruth A. Lothrop of Auburn; Ruth H. Preston of Providence; Grace D. Shein of Providence; Elizabeth T. Stafford of Providence.

HONOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Honor scholarships, to be known as the Elisha Benjamin Andrews Scholarships, have been created in the Women's College.

These are comparable to the James Manning Scholarships—"to encourage proficiency in studies and to provide recognition for successful application to college work," and they will be awarded in June.

ALUMNAE FELLOWSHIPS

Announcement was made at a recent chapel service of the award of the Annie Crosby Emery Alumnae Fellowship for next year to Miss Margaret E. Perry of the Senior class. Miss Perry will probably continue, at Harvard University, her study of history.

STUDENT EVENTS

The Sophomores won the cup this year for presenting the best "stunt" on the occasion of the inter-class competition arranged by the Brownies. The sketch was a "moving picture," cleverly devised and well carried out.

There have also been class suppers and dances in recent weeks, Komian plays and a concert by the orchestra of Brown University.

A program of dances was given in the gymnasium in March by Miss Ruth Doing of New York city and some of her pupils.

Of activities connected with the gymnasium, special interest has followed our basketball games with the Rhode Island College and Wheaton College girls. Wheaton won over Brown but Brown won handsomely over Kingston.

The inter-class gymnastic competition came off on March 15. The whole winter's work counts in this competition—marching, drill, dancing and apparatus work—and the judges awarded first place to the Juniors. The Sophomores came second and Seniors and Freshmen were tied. Dean King presented the prize—a shield—to the Juniors.

The mid-year meeting of the women's section of Phi Beta Kappa was held by Dean King's invitation at Metcalf Hall. The subject of the meeting was "Changing Customs" and the discussion was led by Miss Marion S. Cole.

Two Seniors of the Women's College have recently been elected members of Sigma Xi. They are Hope Elizabeth Burgess of Rockland, Maine, and Rose Mary Finkelstein of Waterbury, Conn.

The Honor List for the first semester, published by the Mathematics Department, includes the following undergraduate women: Mildren E. Carlen, Amelia M. Harris, Charlotte T. Perry, Elizabeth T. Stafford, Nellie C. Stokes, Rose A. Whelan and Frances M. Wright.

At the invitation of Dean King, Theodore Francis Green, Brown '87, spoke recently before the college about his experiences in Japan and China. A tea followed the address.

Among recent chapel talks have been two relating to the college: one by Professor Bronson told of important facts and persons in the history of Brown University, and one by Mrs. Murdock described the founding of the Women's College.

Most important of recent alumnae meetings held at the college was the alumnae banquet on March 4. It was a stormy night but the gymnasium was full of the cheer of spring flowers and gave a real sense of home-coming to the alumnae and their guests. Between two and three hundred gathered for the dinner and for the speeches which followed. There was singing and dancing between the courses and a very interesting talk from Miss Bonstell upon the desirability of college women working in and for the drama, as writers, actors or managers.

Miss Marion S. Cole '07 made a delightful success of presiding over the after-dinner speeches. Her introductions were both clever and sympathetic. Miss Edna Budlong '02 spoke briefly in welcome as president of the Alumnae Association and Dean King followed with a welcome from the college. Miss Whitman '13 told of her experiences in New Jersey among school children who work part time in factories and shops, and Miss Dorothy Allan '18 spoke for the younger graduates. Professor Collier's address—"As a Man Sees It"—was both witty and thoughtful. Miss Marion E. Park, Dean of Radcliffe College and President-elect of Bryn Mawr College, was the association's guest of honor and spoke with great humor and insight about the relation of graduates to undergraduates. President Faunce completed the speeches with one of his best—a phrase which needs no explanation to Brown graduates.

The alumnae have also held at the college a meeting of Secretaries, who discussed various plans and policies of interest to the whole association.

ON THE CAMPUS

NEW LABORATORY

Work on the Metcalf Chemical Laboratory is going steadily forward. The building is the gift of Jesse Houghton Metcalf in memory of his father. It will be constructed of red brick with white trimmings, in the style of the Colonial period. The site is on the corner of Waterman and Thayer streets extending along Thayer street to the Soldiers Memorial Arch.

The first floor of the laboratory will be devoted to study of organic chemistry. There will be a main laboratory accommodating 60 students, and at the north end an auditorium with a seating capacity of 270. The remainder of the first floor will be taken up with smaller laboratories, lecture rooms, and offices.

The second floor will be devoted to inorganic and physical chemistry. The plan of the floor will be the same as the ground floor with the exception that a library will occupy the space above the auditorium. The library will contain complete editions of books on chemistry.

The third floor will be given up to qualitative and quantitative analysis and will be on the same plan as the floors below. There will be a large laboratory on every floor. In the basement will be the receive-ing and unpacking rooms as well as storage spaces and special laboratories.

The work is being pushed to complete the building in as short a time as is consistent with good workmanship. The architects are Day and Klauder of Philadelphia, and the contractors are the Edward Corning Company of New York.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

The Commencement speakers will be Frederick William Brack of South Norwalk, Conn., Thomas Gardner Corcoran of Pawtucket, and Clarence Manton Eddy of Providence.

PHI BETA KAPPA ELECTIONS

Class of 1922—The list of students elected follows: Frederick William Brack, South Norwalk, Connecticut; Philip Meader Brown, Providence; Edward Albert Bullock, Central Falls; Paul Maynard Chalmers, Lansdowne, Pennsylvania; Arthur Henry Feiner, Providence; Charles Hopkins, Chepachet; Harold Bassett Mallory, West Springfield, Pennsylvania; Gilbert Follansbee Merrill, Malden, Massachusetts; Arthur Blair Moody, Jr., Providence; Roger Waldemar Nelson, Quincy, Massachusetts; Raymond Thomas Rich, Hingham, Massachusetts; Edwin Chase Walmsley, Pawtucket.

Class of 1923—Theodore Barton Akey, Presque Isle, Maine; John Davis Edmands Jones, Jr., Providence; Ernest Lyon Lynn, Providence; Daniel Vincent Troppoli, Providence; John Andrew Wilson, Jersey City, New Jersey.

TRIANGULAR DEBATE

May 5 has been chosen as the date for the triangular debate between Brown, Williams and Dartmouth. The subject of the debate will be: "Resolved, that the United States should cancel all allied war debts." The Williams team will come to Providence upholding the negative side of the question, while the Brown negative team will go to Hanover to meet the Dartmouth affirmative.

TENNIS SCHEDULE

Saturday, April 22, M. I. T. at Providence; Friday, April 28, Dartmouth at Providence; Friday, May 5, Wesleyan at Middletown; Saturday, May 6, Yale, 2nd, at New Haven; Wednesday, May 10, Boston University at Providence; Wednesday, May 17, Harvard at Cambridge; Saturday,

May 20, Bowdoin at Providence; Wednesday, May 24, Holy Cross at Providence; Saturday, May 27, Amherst at Providence; Wednesday, May 31, Tufts at Providence.

NOTES OF THE MONTH

Brown University will receive a considerable sum for the Women's College under the terms of the will of Miss A. Alice Bridge, a native of Providence, who went to England 13 years ago and had lived abroad most of the time since, chiefly in Egypt. She died at Harrowgate, Eng., on April 3d. Her father, George Bridge, was a merchant on Exchange place, Providence, dealing in dyestuffs and chemical printing supplies. Most of the estate, valued at approximately $300,000, is divided into 25 parts, one of which goes to Brown.

Sevellon Brown, managing editor of The Providence Journal, gave the first of a series of talks on current problems at Sayles Hall, on the evening of April 10. His subject was "Keeping in Touch," and he handled it to the satisfaction of his large undergraduate audience. This series of talks is being given under the joint auspices of the Associated Alumni and Cammorian Club.

BRUNONIANIANS FAR AND NEAR

FACULTY

J. Barrett Botsford of the History Department appears as the editor of a new Hellenic History, which has lately come from the MacMillan Press. The book was compiled from notes left by his father, the late Professor George Willis Botsford of Columbia, an outstanding authority on classic history.

Professor William H. Kenerson of the Engineering Division, now absent on Sabbatical leave in California, has been appointed honorary vice president of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers to represent that Society at a conference in Pittsburgh in May, held to investigate business training for engineers and engineering training for students of business. He will also preside at a joint meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education to be held at the University of Virginia on May 5 and 6.

Professor Clinton H. Currier delivered his illustrated lecture on The Wonders of the Universe before the Methodist Ministers' Association of Providence on March 6, and the Mens' Club of Warren, R. I., on March 27.

Professor Raymond C. Archibald of the Department of Mathematics has been in Rome. On April 24 he lectured at the University of Strassburg, where he took the degree of doctor of philosophy years ago. On May 14 he will attend the seventh centenary of the founding of the University of Padua, where he will be present as a delegate on behalf of Brown University, and on behalf of his Alma Mater, Mt. Allison University, Nova Scotia.

ALUMNI

1860

Henry Alexander Laughlin died at his home, Greylock, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, March 22, 1922. He was born in Pittsburgh, December 12, 1838, the son of James Laughlin, one of the founders of the present Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, and Ann McCully (Irwin) Laughlin. The year after his graduation from Brown he entered the firm of Jones & Laughlin, and all his long business life was devoted to its interests. For many years he was chairman of Laughlin & Co., Ltd., and was active in its management until the business was absorbed by the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company in 1900. He early recognized the value of the coal deposits on the Monongahela River and foresaw the great advantage to Pittsburgh from them. He encouraged every movement looking forward to improvements in the navigation of the Monongahela River, and his activities assisted in making Pittsburgh one of the world's great coke producing centres. About 12 years ago Mr. Laughlin retired from active participation in the steel industry and removed his residence from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia. Mr. Laughlin was a member of the Presbyterian church. He was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, the Duquesne Club of Pittsburgh, the New York Yacht Club and the Art Club, Philadelphia. His benevolences and charities were many and widespread to public welfare institutions. Mr. Laughlin was married in 1860 to Alice B. Dennison, of Pittsburgh, who died in 1873. Two of their children are living, James B. Laughlin of Pittsburgh, and Anne Irwin Laughlin of Philadelphia. Another son, Rev. Edward Reed Laughlin, died in 1909. In 1876 Mr. Laughlin married Mary B. Reed of Washington, Penn., who died in 1917. In addition to his son and daughter he leaves five grandchildren, Ledlie I. Laughlin and Alice D. Laughlin, of Pittsburgh, and Henry A. Laughlin II, of Concord, Mass.; Ethel Dale Laughlin and Edward R. Laughlin, West Newton, Mass., and two great-grandchildren, Rebecca Ledlie Laughlin and Henry A. Laughlin III, of Concord, Mass.

1865

United States District Court, says the Detroit News of March 16, was halted for one hour Wednesday (March 15) while officials paid tribute to Jared W. Finney, United States Commissioner, who celebrated his eighty-first birthday, and more than a half century of service to the Government in Detroit. Judge Arthur J. Tuttle presented Commissioner Finney with a bouquet of roses in the presence of the court officials. "You are no doubt the oldest living United States Commissioner and are reputed to be one of the best informed authorities on the Federal statutes and court practice," said Judge Tuttle. "You have witnessed the birth of the United States District Court, and you have been intimately associated with the judges who have preceded me on this bench. "You were a United States Commissioner when I first came to this bench, and now I appoint you a United States Commissioner for the remainder of your life." Commissioner Finney spent 18 years as an assistant United States district attorney, and served eight months as the district attorney. "When I asked Judge Tuttle to be relieved of the burden of work of the commissioner's court several years ago, he would not hear of me resigning; so I gained his consent to have J. Stanley Hurd appointed an associate United States Commissioner," said Commissioner Finney.

1869

Francis Lawton died at Wakefield, R. I., on April 16, 1922. He was born in Newport, June 25, 1849. He studied at Hampton Military Academy, New Haven, and was graduated from Brown in the class of 1869. Later he went into newspaper work and received his training under Horace Greeley on the New York Tribune. While engaged in journalism he worked his way through the New York Law School. He practiced law in New York city for more than 40 years and was admitted to the bar of the United States Supreme Court at Washington. Mr. Lawton helped found the University and Zeta Psi clubs of New York city and at one time was Phi Alpha (national president) of the Zeta Psi fraternity. For 20 years he was a summer visitor at Matunuck, where he had a bungalow on Matunuck Hills. About 10 years ago he suffered a paralytic stroke and since had lived at Wakefield. Mr. Lawton leaves his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth A. (Evans) Lawton; one son, Francis Lawton, Jr., of New York city, and his mother, Mrs. Isabel Greene Turner Lawton, who will be 100 years old on May 25th, and is a granddaughter of William Greene, Governor of Rhode Island several times under the royal charter.

1878

Anne Allen Ely, daughter of William Ely, was married on Feb. 11, 1922, to John M. B. Churchill.

1881

Daniel S. Willson is travelling in the South. His permanent address is 553 No. Goodman st., Rochester, N. Y.

1886

William Allan Dyer has been elected president of the Syracuse, N. Y., chamber of commerce for a fourth consecutive term.

1889

Professor Carl C. Plehn contributes to the April issue of the University of California Chronicle a paper on "Income in the United States."

1890 and 1903

At the Bowdoin-Tufts debate at Tufts College, March 13, two of the judges were Professor L. C. Newell of Boston University and Professor W. T. Hastings of Brown.

1891

F. D. Stidham is out of the U. S. Naval Hospital and "at 228 Newbury st., Boston, Mass., until the next batch of Navy saw-bones gets hold of his body," according to his letter to the alumni office. He expects soon to take a course in mechanical engineering at M. I. T.

Rev. Charles A. Meader was, on April 19, elected dean of the Narragansett Convocation of the Episcopal Church of Rhode Island.

1892

Herbert H. Rice is president and general manager of the Cadillac Motor Car Co. and a vice president and director of the General Motors Co.

1893

H. W. B. Arnold is a member of the Milton, Mass., school committee.

1896

The address of Carleton Hale is care of the American Consul, Vera Cruz, Ver., Mexico, where he is chief inspector, Comision Especial contra la Fiebre Amarilla, Tuxpan area, Mexico.

1898

The address of Joseph Taylor is no longer Chengtu, China. He may be addressed in care of George B. Huntington, 276 Fifth ave., New York city.

1899

Warren Bigelow has removed his law offices to 27 William st., Suite 1710, New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O. Brigham announce the birth of a daughter, Anne Stewart, on January 14, 1922.

The address of Charles McC. Teague is Hampton, N. H., where he is headmaster in Hampton Academy. He has contributed numerous articles to various popular magazines—Literary Digest, Popular Science, National Geographic, Scribner's, Atlantic, Harper's, Outlook, etc.

Mellinger E. Henry has been elected vice-president of the New Jersey Association of English Teachers.

At the March meeting of the Board of Directors of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences the salary of Director Charles D. Atkins of the Institute's Department of Education was increased from $8,000 to $9,000 a year. The Department has had an unusual growth during Director Atkins's administration, additional classrooms having been built the past year on the roof of the Academy of Music building to provide more room for its work.

George B. Utley, librarian of the New George B. Utley librarianship of the Newberry Library, Chicago, has had the title of chevalier of the Order of the Crown of Italy conferred upon him by the King of Italy, in recognition of his services in connection with the library's Dante exhibition last year.

1900

Louis M. Burt is in the real-estate business in New York city with offices at 80 Maiden Lane. His home address is Forest Hills, Long Island.

The business address of Dr. Ernest H. Gilbert is 201 Medical bldg., Portland, Oregon, and his home is in Tigard, Ore.

Leonard M. Patton has been reelected chairman of the Milton, Mass., school committee.

1901

Major G. A. Taylor, C. A. C., U. S. A., Senior Instructor, R. I. N. G., recently published in the National Guard Number of the Journal of the U. S. Artillery, Fort Monroe, Va., an illustrated historical article on the "Rhode Island Coast Artillery." On Monday, March 20th, he lectured before the Men's Club of the Westminster Unitarian Church, Adelaide ave., Providence, on "The Army of the United States, Its Components and Development."

On the Keep-In-Touch blank recently received at the alumni office from Ernest W. Flagg the following news about himself was included: "Fifteen years with Bradstreet's as travelling reporter, two years with printers' supplies as salesman for the New England States and eight years as editor and owner of the Hyde Park Gazette-

The Best Tonic

Horsford's Acid Phosphate is especially recommended for the restoration of energy and vitality, the relief of mental and nervous exhaustion, impaired digestion or appetite.

HORSFORD'S Acid Phosphate (Non-Alcoholic)

Is a scientific and carefully prepared preparation of the phosphates, and has been found a most valuable general Tonic.

A teaspoonful added to a glass of cold water, with sugar, makes a delicious and wholesome beverage.

If your druggist can't supply you, send 25 cents to Rumford Chemical Works, Providence, R. I., for trial size bottle, postage paid.

Providence Coal Co.

Anthracite and Bituminous

COAL

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Central Office, Corner Custom House
and Weybosset Street. Yard, Corner of Dorrance and Dyer Sts.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Times, a weekly paper now in its 109th year. Also, owner of the Norfolk Press, printers. Was treasurer-secretary of the Hyde Park Board of Trade for five years. Have managed to keep out of jail and out of the clutches of my creditors thus far and am still hopeful. Am entitled to a seat in the bald-headed row of any theatre."

Colonel David C. Hall, physician at the University of Washington, who served on the Italian front in the World War with the American sanitary contingent, was honored recently by the Italian Government when Colonel C. J. Charles, commanding at Fort Lawton, decorated him with the Order of Chevalier of St. Maurizio and Lazzaro. Dr. Hall was a famous athlete in his student days at Brown and was a member of one of the Olympic teams. He was rated as one of the fastest distance men of his day.

1902

James L. Peden is manager of Credits and New Business, National City Bank, Seattle, Wash. His address is 3315 Hunter blvd., Seattle.

1903

Lester E. Dodge is manager of the Rogers Dredging Co., 2733 Whitehall bldg., New York city. His permanent address is Block Island.

Marc T. Greene of the American Consular Service, who has been in Washington in conference with the State Department and other officials in connection with his work abroad, sailed in January for London on the Cunard Steamer Vendalia.

1904

George E. Kelleher, special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, has recently returned from an extended European trip in the interests of the Department of Justice.

1906

Rhys Powell was elected, April 11, superintendent of schools at Scranton, Pa. He is a native of that city.

1907

Myron Affleck is connected with the Engineering Department of the General Chemical Co. of Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Grose announce the birth of a son, David Thayer, on March 20, 1922.

George Walker Davis gives his occupation as engineer-economist, Bureau of Public Roads, Washington, D. C. He is not married yet.

In the famous examinations recently compiled by Thomas A. Edison, which caused considerable comment throughout the country, it was left to a Brown graduate to make the highest score for the complete examination. This distinct honor fell to Samuel A. Halsey, who, as a result of his remarkable achievement, was not only made general manager of the Phonograph Corporation of Manhattan, but found such favor in the sight of the sister of Mrs. Charles Edison (Miss Charlotte W. Hawkins) that they were married on February 1st.

1908

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Densmore, Lebanon, N. H., announce the birth of a son, Alfred Jason Densmore, Jr., on February 26, 1922.

A new address for S. S. Paine: 4 Warwick st., Shawsheen Village, Andover, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Chapin arrived late in April from a trip to Europe.

1909

Mr. and Mrs. James V. Turner announce the birth of a son, James Varnum Turner, Jr., on March 30, 1922, at North Scituate, R. I. Turner is associated with the new water project for the city of Providence.

Raymond Buss has accepted appointment from President Wheeler as 1909 Class Loyalty Fund Director.

Elmer Arthur Burton, ex-'09, a graduate of Syracuse University, is with the American Smelting and Refining Company, Tierra Amarilla, Chile.

"Chick" Butterworth, associated with G. H. McFadden & Bros., cotton brokers, has recently returned from an extended trip to Peru.

1910

Arthur M. Ham is a partner in the firm of DeWolf and Ham, logging engineers and contractors, Cranbrook, B. C. He served as an officer in the U. S. Air Service for eighteen months overseas.

Herman H. Haskins is an accountant with Arthur Warren Smith '90, Winchester, Mass.

Donald Sturges Babcock and Miss Mary Tillinghast Gladding, 2d, were married at the First Congregational Church, Providence, on April 19. The best man was F. F. Huntington Babcock '07 and among the ushers were Harold P. Babcock '09 and Duncan Langdon '13.

1911

Frederick R. Gleason has moved from Newtonville, Mass., to 1460 Monadnock

Iverson & Heneage

Men's Clothes Ready Tailored

Sane prices and correct styles, and the finest of all wool materials. This is the trinity of factors on which our reputation is founded.

Wm. C. Crolius, Jr., Treasurer

IVERSON & HENEAGE

7 and 9 East 44th Street

NEW YORK

WHATCHEER

Printing Company

Printers and Publishers

The Only POSTER PRINTING Plant in Providence

46 Chestnut Street

Telephone 1663 Union

National Exchange Bank

63 Westminster Street

Providence, R. I.

INCORPORATED 1891

Capital	-	-	-	$500,000
Surplus	-	-	-	$750,000

Interest paid on deposits

Certificates of deposit issued

Travelers' Cheques for sale

New business invited

DRUGS

Chemicals and Medicines

Electric Batteries

Invalid Roller Chairs

Prescriptions a Specialty

GEO. L. CLAFLIN CO.

62 to 64 South Main Street,

Providence, R. I.

bldg., 53 West Jackson blvd., Chicago, Ill.

The address of Charles M. Franklin is 31 Clinton st., Newark, N. J., where he is connected with the Standard Oil Co.

1912

Earl W. Bates is assistant cashier at the National Exchange Bank, Newport, R. I. He has one son, John Warren Bates, whom he is training for Brown.

After being discharged from the Navy, George W. Brewster came to Providence, where he is now treasurer and general manager of the Fox Point Warehouses.

Another new address: Francis E. Miles, 3000 West Grand blvd., Detroit.

Carleton H. Parker has moved from Everett, Wash., to Providence and his address is care of Line and Signal Department, United Electric Railways Co.

J. Harvey Rowland is New York manager for the Phoenix Bridge and Iron Co., with offices at 132 Nassau st., New York city. His home is Hessian Hill Lodge, Croton on Hudson, N. Y.

After many hours of weary search for E. A. Tewksbury he has finally reappeared in the guise of city engineer, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio.

1913

Oliver M. Krantz is with the Haines, Jones and Cadbury Co., 12th and Spring Garden sts., Philadelphia, Pa. His home address is 1728 North 12th st.

C. C. Parker is now living at the University Club, Buffalo, N. Y., and is connected with the Park and Pollard Co., Inc.

"Fritz" Hazard is living at 69 28th st., Elmhurst, L. I., N. Y., and is with the Allied Chemical Co., New York city.

1914

Richard J. O'Brien is industrial engineer with the Charleston Industrial Corporation, Nitro, W. Va. He served as captain of Field Artillery in the United States and France 1917-1918 and after the armistice as first lieutenant, Russian Railway Service Corps, 1919-1920. He was chief storekeeper of the Trans-Siberian Railway at Vladivostock and Harbin, Manchuria, and also attached to the Allied Purchasing Commission at Siberia.

Stanley J. Rowland is assistant curator, Metropolitan Museum, New York city.

Robert S. Holding is travelling through the Orient in the interest of the Brown and Sharpe Co. of Providence. He is reported as having recently arrived in Australia from China, and is expected back in the United States about the first of June.

1915

The March 18th reunion at the Hotel Narragansett was very successful in attendance and enthusiasm. Among those present were Staff, Fagan, Taylor, Terry, Bongartz, Phelps, Graham, Sheffield, Haire, Needham and Kinne.

Our president, William P. Sheffield, has offered us the use of Miskiania Camp, Yawgoo Pond, South Kingstown, R. I., for our 7th annual reunion on Alumni Day, June 20th. Some forty-odd men will recall the pleasant time we had there in 1920. We want you to commence planning for this year and reserve that date. Of course these things cost money and we must know who is coming. A committee consisting of Chairman Edinger, Kinne, Terry, Taylor and Curtis has been appointed by the president. They feel that members should send in reservations at once and have asked for a partial preliminary assessment of $5.00. This will not cover all the expenses but please send it as soon as possible to the secretary-treasurer. Details will follow later.

Harvey Denham has been advanced to assistant manager of the Standard Oil Company in China. His office is at Shanghai.

John H. Bower is teaching school at Mounds, Ill.

Manager Chief Bender of the Reading (Pa.) Internationals has signed Outfielder Charles Babington, who has previously played for the New York Giants and the Bethlehem Steel League.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Sheffield announce the birth of a second son, Edwin Spink, on February 19th.

Rev. Irving T. Gumb is now residing at 63 Oakland st., Lowell, Mass. He is the proud father of a future Brown man who is now about nine months old, called Junior. Irving has been doing student work at the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Institute of Technology, but had a bad touch of the "flu" and has been resting up back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Minot Joy Crowell of 113 Clay st., Central Falls, R. I., announce the arrival of Miss Frances Freeman Crowell on March 12th.

W. Russell Burwell recently obtained his Ph. D. at Oxford and returned to this country the latter part of December. He is now at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville as an assistant professor in mathematics. His engagement to Miss Marion Au-

TO SUCCEED IN COLLEGE OR IN TECHNICAL SCHOOL

The American Youth must build a strong character and receive thorough preliminary instruction.

Worcester Academy

of Worcester, Mass.

is holding constantly to the attainment of these high ideals as the great function of a great school.

It is always our pleasure to mail our catalog to any one interested in the building of boys into successful men.

89th year opens September 19th

The Corlew Teachers' Agency

RUFUS. E. CORLEW, Prop., Brown '98
GRACE M. ABBOTT, Manager

120 BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON

Telephone Beach 6606

Send for registration form

The Merchants National Bank

Providence, R. I.
20 Westminster Street

Capital, $1,000,000
Surplus Earnings, $1,500,000

ROBERT W. TAFT, President
CHARLES H. NEWELL, Vice President
MOSES J. BARBER, Vice-President
FRANK A. GREENE, Cashier
WILLARD I. ANGELL, Asst. Cashier
HARRY S. HATHAWAY, Asst. Cashier

Directors

George M. Smith	Everett L. Spencer
Horatio N. Campbell	Moses J. Barber
Robert W. Taft	Frank E. Richmond
Charles H. Newell	Edward P. Jastram
William B. McBee	A. Livingston Kelley

Interest allowed on Current Accounts

Established 1863

Elsbree-Valleau Co.

Fine Hats
and Furs

101 Westminster Street, Providence

brey Eaton of Plainfield, N. J., is announced.

Carl H. Angell, who was with the Equitable Life in Providence, has become the owner of the Modern Dye and Rug Works at 24 Conduit st., Providence.

Adams T. Rick, who has been conducting a very successful run of the Bonstelle Stock Company at the Providence Opera House, is building a studio on a choice spot overlooking the harbor of New York city and Lower Manhattan. This would make an ideal spot for one of our 1915 reunions. How about it, Adams?

John S. Rorey is still in the advertising game at Dayton, Ohio, and may be reached at 316 Monument ave.

S. S. Burtch has been heard from again, this time at the Hotel du Palais, Paris, France.

Ernest Holden Curtis, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Curtis, of 41 Mason st., West Somerville, Mass., who was born on March 16th, died on March 22nd.

Our Newport, R. I., friends are certainly in the limelight. John Nolan was recently an unsuccessful candidate for State Senator and Eddie Corcoran also ran for the District Court, but later landed on the School Committee.

1915

Cecil M. P. Cross, U. S. consul at Aden, Arabia, writes the Alumni Monthly: "I have the pleasure of announcing the birth on February 19, 1922, of Jean Douglas Cross."

1916

The permanent address for A. E. Evans is 440 Riverside drive, New York city.

Johnnie Johnston is half owner of the Snyder-Johnston Co., athletic goods, Tulsa, Okla.

Jack Hall is night manager of classified advertising, Providence Journal Co., and he and his wife, who was Margaret Morrison until last fall, are living at 9 Wood st., Warren, R. I.

Melville M. Lowe has changed his address to 1318 Hinman st., Evanston, Ill.

Jack Sweetland is in the Merchandising Department of the William Filene's Sons Co., Boston.

"Mike" Mitchell was married recently and is living in Boston.

Miss Mary O'Dell of Kalamazoo, Mich., announces the engagement of her niece, Miss Dorothea M. Wetherbee, to Captain William C. Chase, Cavalry, U. S. A.

CONVENIENT--

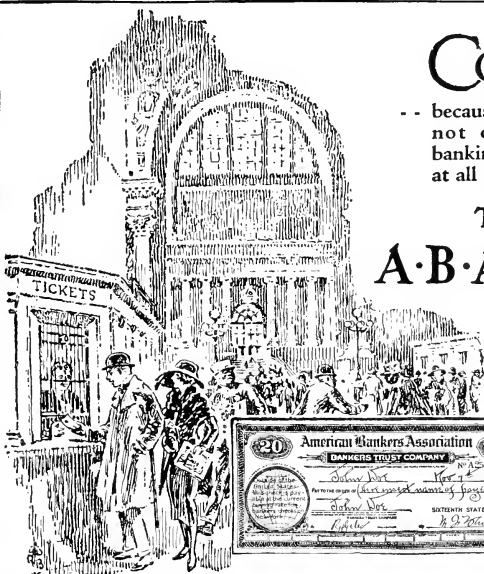

-- because those who carry them are not dependent on banks and banking hours; they are accepted at all times and in all places -----

TRAVELERS'

A.B.A

American
Bankers
Association

Cheques

Ask for them at your bank or write for particulars to

BANKERS TRUST COMPANY,
New York City

1918

The wedding of Miss Rebecca Sackett and Ken MacLeod took place on Feb. 11. Among the ushers were Wayland W. Rice '17, C. Gordon MacLeod '15, A. Chester Snow '07 and Nelson B. Sackett '17, and the best man was Wilbur L. Rice '18.

James F. Armstrong was recently married to Miss Madeline Flanagan of Manton, R. I. Jimmie is associated with Ward and Fisher, Union Trust bldg., as Income Tax Expert, having previously been with the Government in the same capacity.

C. Raymond Adams confessed to the class secretary the other day that his reported engagement to a belle of Somerville is authentic. Ray is working for his Ph. D. in the Department of Mathematics at Harvard.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dowe of Danielson, Conn., report the birth of a son, Marshall Clark Dowe, on Nov. 23, 1921.

Burton Harrison was recently married to Miss Marguerite Jaynes of New York. The wedding took place in the latter city. Burt is now general manager of the Poster and of the Association News, two Chicago publications. His home address is "the Shore Crest," 420 Wrightwood ave., Chicago, Ill.

1919

Chet Scott is now in the mill business and his address is 113 South Meadow st., or the Manhansett Mill, Putnam, Conn.

The engagement is announced of Miss Jessie E. Smith to Andrew B. Winsor.

Reginald G. Harris is organizing an African expedition, of which he will be director. It has the official sanction of the American Field Service Fellowships Formation and will be known as the American Field Service Scientific Expedition to Equatorial Africa 1922. He is an A. F. S. Fellow in France, now studying at the University of Paris, and will be accompanied by another of the Fellows. The expedition will collect entomological specimens and study race types. Harris was a member of the Cornell University Entomological Expedition to South America 1919-20. The African objective is Madagascar, but stops will be made along the Congo river, at Lake Tanganyika and in East Africa. The expedition leaves Paris in June and will be gone several months.

Westminster Bank

73 Westminster Street
Providence

ARNOLD B. CHACE, President
Geo. A. JEPHERSON, Vice-President
WILLIAM C. ANGELL, Cashier
BENJAMIN B. MANCHESTER, Ass't Cashier

Accounts Solicited

We offer to depositors every facility which their balances, business and responsibility warrant

BLANDING'S Prescription Department

For over half a century has set a standard for reliability that makes it the logical place at which to have your prescriptions compounded. Prices consistent with the high quality of drugs used.

BLANDING & BLANDING

58 Weybosset Street

CRAHAN

ENGRAVING COMPANY.

DESIGNING

PHOTO

CATALOGUE

ENGRAVING

ILLUSTRATIONS

50 Exchange Place

Providence

1920

Harold Lord is planning to step off soon with Miss Hester Gunning of Fall River.
She is a graduate of Smith College.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mary C. Hinchcliff to John Walter Harriman. She is a graduate of Wellesley College in the class of 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Marr of 257
Eighth st., Providence, are the joyous parents of twin boys. Mrs. Marr was formerly Miss Frances Fooks of the class of 1921, Women's College, Brown University.

Brad Moore and Miss Jane Harris, daughter of Mrs. A. Walter Harris of Providence, have recently announced their engagement. The wedding will probably take place some time in June.

Bruce N. Coulter, our faithful president, is the purchasing agent for the Collapsible
Tube Co. of Providence.

Phillips D. Carleton is assisting in the English Department at Brown University.

F. Conald Brigham and Rey W. Greene are with the Greene & Lawton Mills,
Plainfield, Conn.

Irving A. Farrell is establishing an excellent scholastic record at the Harvard Medical School.

Seth B. Gifford is with the well-known accounting firm of Ernst & Ernst, and is living at 60 Charles Field st., Providence.

BROWN DIRECTORY

ARTHUR H. BLANCHARD

Consulting Highway and Transport
Engineer

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Abbott, '80

Edwards, '96

ABBOTT, FAUNTLEROY, CULLEN &
EDWARDS

Attorneys at Law

Suite 315, Commercial Building

214 North Sixth Street, St Louis, Mo.

Abbott, '15

MENDELL W. CRANE,

Attorney at Law

312 Howard Building, 171 Westminster st.,
Providence

TREFRY, PERRY and SAUNDERS

Counsellors at Law

185 Devonshire Street, Boston, Mass.

Joseph Earl Perry, Williams; Albert L.
Saunders, Brown 1902

BODELL & CO.

Investment Securities

10 Weybosset Street
PROVIDENCE

115 BROADWAY
NEW YORK

35 CONGRESS STREET
BOSTON

RAMESES

CIGARETTES

At the Pre-War Price 20¢

WAR sent the price up for a while but the price is now back to 20c.

Five long years of war held up five years' supply of Rameses Tobacco in its native climate where it aged and mellowed as no Turkish tobacco was ever allowed to age and mellow before.

The result is a greater Rameses—the cigarette made of the world's finest Turkish tobacco.

If your dealer cannot supply you, write us direct.

STEPHANO BROS., Philadelphia

Charles H. Lawton, Jr., is associated with the firm of Charles H. Lawton & Son, real estate and insurance, Pawtucket.

Harold S. Litchfield is with the Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Co., the Pawtucket branch of Stone & Webster, electrical engineers.

A. N. McDougall is travelling for the National Surety Co. of New York city. "Mac" lives in Yonkers.

L. A. R. Pieri is assisting in the Chemistry Department of Brown University.

SAINT MARGARET'S SCHOOL
Waterbury, Conn. Founded 1875.

Successful preparation for all colleges. Secretarial Course giving Gregg Certificates. All Branches of Domestic Science. Excellent advantages in Music and Art. Experienced teachers. Gymnasium work, Athletics, Track, Basketball, Swimming, and Outdoor Sports. Beautifully situated, one hour from Hartford or New Haven. Students admitted at any time during the year. Send for booklet.

Miss Emily Gardner Munro, A. M.,
Brown '98, Principal

Have You a Copy?

of

P. L. Shurtleff's

"Songs At Anchor"

Our star athlete become a poet.

A real book of poems worthy of any man's library.

Plimpton Press
$1.25 Net.

H. McKelvie,
57 Waterman St.
Providence, R. I.

Enclosed is $..... for..... copies of "Songs At Anchor."

Name.....
Street.....
City.....
State.....

John A. McGhee, Jr., is in the production department of B. A. Ballou & Co., Inc., Providence.

William D. Shay is with the accounting firm of Price, Waterhouse & Co.

James Sinclair is manager of the Whatcheer Chemical Co., Providence.

Ray E. Palmer is salesman for the Franklin Automobile Co., 635 Elmwood ave., Providence.

George H. Carr is doing efficiency work at the Sayles Finishing Plants, Inc., Saylesville, R. I.

Victor F. Adams is managing a wholesale oyster business, Osterville, Mass.

Paul W. Davis is studying for the Baptist ministry at the Newton Theological Seminary, Newton, Mass.

William L. Dewart, Jr., is associated with the Greeneville Finishing Co.

Stanley M. Dore is assistant engineer in the chief engineer's office of the Providence Water Supply Board.

Harvey A. Whipple is in the Accounting Department of J. & P. Coats, Inc., Pawtucket.

Stanley P. Whipple is assistant clerk in the Superior Court of Rhode Island.

1921

Francis J. Haley, who was in college only a short time, is physical director of the Cleveland Y. M. C. A. He was married about a year ago to Miss Helene E. Rogers.

Dave Hischer is assistant general manager of the Cold Spring Textile Corporation, Cold Spring on the Hudson.

Arthur S. Kirk writes that he is an electrical designer for Stone & Webster, Inc., Boston. He is also an associated member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Preston E. Stephens was recently in Providence, where he served as usher at the wedding of Miss Marion B. Wallace and Howard B. Stearns.

Howard Stearns is one of the first of our members to leave the bachelor ranks. On April 18th he was married to Miss Marian Barker Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Arthur Wallace of Providence. The wedding ceremony took place in St. John's Church.

Reports from Hartford tell us that the members of 1921 in the insurance business keep busy. "Prexy" Tinker manages to get enough time off on Sundays to sing in a church choir. Ralph Knight prays for sunny Saturday afternoons so he may pitch a game of ball. He says that insurance work can't interfere with his ball playing.

On the 21st of every month the class has a reunion dinner at the Rathskeller. Myles Standish and Lou Card entertain the boys with their latest yarns. Some of them are pretty good, too. If you are around this way drop in and contribute your bit.

"Curly" Oden is helping Coach "Wallie" Snell to get the baseball team into shape.

Seneca Samson is now with the Reality Credit Co., 171 Madison ave., New York city.

ALUMNAE

1911

The marriage is announced of Irene D. Nelson, Brown 1911, to Sumner E. Marvell, Colby College 1901. Mr. Marvell is head of the Science Department in the New Bedford High School. Their address is 234 Hawthorne st., New Bedford, Mass.

1913

The engagement is announced of Helen Matilda Hastings and John Case Callard of Winthrop, Mass.

Minnie W. Taylor has been elected to Complete Service

in the design and construction of

STEAM POWER STATIONS

HYDRO-ELECTRIC DEVELOPMENTS

TRANSMISSION SYSTEMS

—

RAILROAD SHOPS

LOCOMOTIVE TERMINALS

PASSENGER TERMINALS

ELECTRIFICATION

—

INDUSTRIAL PLANTS OF EVERY CHARACTER

DWIGHT P. ROBINSON & COMPANY

INCORPORATED
ENGINEERS AND CONSTRUCTORS
123 EAST 40TH STREET
NEW YORK

CHICAGO

YOUNGSTOWN

DALLAS

LOS ANGELES

MONTREAL

A Good Morning Cup—

rich brown, fragrant and mellow, free from bitterness, and with a delicate flavor all its own--that's

AUTOCRAT COFFEE

Sold everywhere: In Cities—in the Mountains—By the Seashore.

BROWNELL & FIELD CO.
Providence, R. I.

A valuable coupon in each can.
Write for premium list.

BROWN ALUMNI MONTHLY

Published for the graduates of Brown University by the Brown Alumni Magazine Co.

Henry R. Palmer, Editor

Clinton H. Currier, Business Manager and Treasurer

Emma B. Stanton,
Women's College Correspondent

Business Office, Brown University

Subscription, $1.00 a year. Single copies, 10 cents.

There is no issue during August and September.

Entered at the Providence post-office as second class matter.

MAY, 1922

membership in the Women's Science Club of Wisconsin.

1914

Helen A. Gilliland is teaching in the Technical High School, Providence.

1919

Professor and Mrs. Harold S. Bucklin announce the birth of a son, Donald Hartwell Bucklin, February 25, 1922.

Mrs. Honoré P. Collette has announced the marriage of her daughter Mildred Loretta to Robert Vincent Cleary, Harvard
1915, on September 10, 1921, at Fisherville,
Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Cleary are living at 5
Highland circle, Naugatuck, Ct.

Hope Louise Humes was united in marriage to Earl Clifton Webster on September
1, 1921, at the First Baptist Church, Providence. Mr. and Mrs. Webster are living at 25 Prospect st., Auburn, R. I.

Ruth Chace Lester was united in marriage to Harold Raymond Moulton, Brown
1919, on November 19, 1921, at the Washington Park Methodist Episcopal Church, Providence. Mr. and Mrs. Moulton are living at 2 Windsor court, Southbridge, Mass.

Rev. and Mrs. Eric F. Toll of Manville have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ingeborg Mathilda, to Atherton
Hagy Mears, son of Mrs. J. Townsend
Mears of Philadelphia.

Herbert W. Vaughn has announced the marriage of his daughter, Helen Jenks

Vaughn, to George Frank Remington of Davisville, R. I., on Nov. 5, 1921. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lawrence
Gates at 72 Portland st. Mr. and Mrs.
Remington are living in Davisville; their address is East Greenwich, R. I., R. F. D.
No. 2.

Ruth C. Coombs has been at the head of the circulation department in the Providence Public Library since December.

Theresa E. O'Brien is teaching in the Mansfield High School, Mansfield, Mass.

Miriam Prentice has inaugurated a new bacteriological and pathological laboratory in the New Britain General Hospital and is giving a course in bacteriology to the nurses there.

Elizabeth J. Ross is teaching in the high school in West Hartford, Conn.

JANUARY NUMBERS WANTED

The business manager of the Brown
Alumni Monthly finds that the January edition is entirely exhausted. He would be care to keep a file for binding would mail their copies of this (January) issue to him.

Starkweather & Shepley

Incorporated

George L. Shepley, President

INSURANCE

Of Every Description

Fidelity and Surety Bonds

17 Custom House Street
Providence, R. I.

New York Office, 55 John Street

Chicago Office, 175 W. Jackson Boulevard

Boston Office, 43 Kilby Street

Paris, France, Office, 30 Rue Chauchat

Preston & Rounds Co.

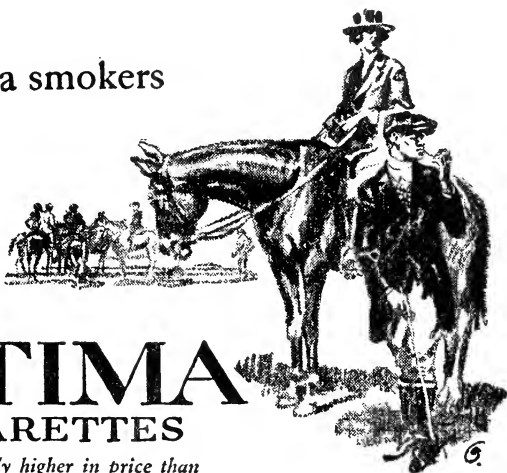

No. 98 Westminster Street

Providence, R. I.

Booksellers

Stationers

Let Fatima smokers
tell you

FATIMA CIGARETTES

Always slightly higher in price than other Turkish Blend cigarettes but—just taste the difference!

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

BESIDES selling Men's Handkerchiefs, Hose, Gloves, Shirts, Jewelry and Leather Goods, this store also offers large comfortable Chairs, Smoking Stands, Humidors, Desk Lamps and the like, for men. Come in sometime and just look them over.

Gladding's

BROWN
HEADQUARTERS
IN
NEW YORK

HOTEL BRISTOL

129-135 West 48th Street

Just East of Broadway

400 ROOMS 300 BATHS

Convenient to

Theatres, Shops, Subways

EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN PLAN

T. ELLIOTT TOLSON, '06, Pres.

Have you a fund which is regularly accumulating for your child's education?

The Educational Fund Contract, issued by the Puritan Life, offers the most modern and complete plan whereby a fund will be in hand at the right time.

The Contract provides for $500 payable to the boy each year for the four years of his college education, beginning at age eighteen.

Here is how it works out. Assume that the father is thirty years of age and the baby one year old. The parent deposits with us regularly each year $92.14 and when the child is eighteen we pay him $500 a year for four years.

If the parent does not live to complete the payments, upon his death all the remaining deposits are cancelled and the child receives his $500 a year for four years when he reaches age eighteen.

This unique plan has proved most popular and has been accepted by parents living in all parts of our good land.

Many boys and girls will look to the Puritan Life for the Educational Fund which is awaiting them.

Puritan Life
Insurance
Company,
Providence, R. I.

I wish you would send me information regarding your Child's Educational Fund Contract.

Name.....

Address.....

