

Single Copy Free

10 copies	$1.00
25 copies	2.00
50 copies	3.50
100 copies	6.00

Other prices on request.

The Foundation for Economic Education, while nonprofit and nonpolitical, is nonetheless an educational champion of private ownership, the profit and loss system, and limited government. Its studies in economics, political science, and related subjects are available to all. It is responsible to no outside person or group. It is supported only by gifts and the sale of its publications. Additional information on request.