

God Bless America

Often a brief reminder of the rich Christian heritage of America is all it takes to restore our faith in, and hope for, this nation's revival. God Bless America, a beautifully bound book, provides a heart-warming and easy-to-read compendium of Bible verses, quotes and reflections by the Founding Fathers, American presidents, and other prominent leaders that will provide direction for your prayers and motivation for your life.

Sections on freedom, prayer, leadership, worship, stewardship, justice, community, and service contain passages from Scripture for meditation and quotes from great Americans for reflection. The passages will remind you of the foundational commitment of this nation and its leaders to God's principles and their application to governance.

With its richly padded hard cover and gilt-edged pages, God Bless America makes a perfect gift for parents, children, students, friends, community leaders, and prayer partners. It is sized to be easily carried wherever you go. A special discount is available on requests for five or more copies. To order, fill out the form on the reverse side of this card and return to us in the enclosed envelope or call 1-800-225-4008. You won't be disappointed.

"Whenever I need bite-sized inspiration, or a quiet time to reflect on America's blessings, I turn to God Bless America. It's great." — S.D.

The Welfare of my Neighbor by Deanna Carlson

America is well on its way to the successful overhaul of welfare. The success of the 1996 reform depends on the willingness of God's people to help those in need. FRC is proud to introduce our powerful new book, The Welfare of My Neighbor. Researched and written by FRC's own Deanna Carlson, a national expert on community outreach, The Welfare of My Neighbor provides you with the solid biblical exhortations and sound perspective you need to get involved.

Complete with a discussion/study guide and essential resources, this book lays the foundation necessary for your church to serve God by serving the poor.

"...a book that every person who has a concern for welfare reform needs to read. Not only will you get some very practical ideas of help from it, but it is anchored in the greatest biblical principle in the Scripture - that's loving your neighbor."

— Dr. John Perkins, Chairman of the board of Christian Community Development Association and President of the John M. Perkins Foundation for Reconciliation and Development