

'General Theory.' . . . If any single book can turn the ideological tide that has been running in recent years so heavily toward statism, socialism, and totalitarianism, 'Human Action' is that book."—Newsweek. (889 pages; $10.00 clothbound)

Index by Vern Crawford

Since Human Action is being used widely as a reference book, a detailed and extensive index has been prepared separately to supplement the standard index in the book itself. (20 pages; 50¢)

†THE KEY TO PEACE by Clarence Manion

"The author [formerly Dean of Notre Dame Law School] emphasizes that our free institutions rest upon a religious conviction that every individual is a child of God and therefore is of supreme worth. . . . It is one of the greatest books of all my reading experience."—Norman Vincent Peale. (121 pages; $2.00 clothbound)

†"LIBERALS" AND THE CONSTITUTION by Henry Plowdeper

Modern "liberals" have taken liberties with the Constitution itself. The author re-examines the basic reasons for constitutional limitations upon the scope and power of government. (301 pages, indexed; $3.00 clothbound)

MAN VERSUS THE STATE by Herbert Spencer

In 1851, Mr. Spencer began to publish his essays on liberalism that foretold what would happen to freedom under the socialist-communist theory of government then coming into popularity. (213 pages, indexed; $2.50 clothbound)

†SHIRTSLEEVE ECONOMICS by William A. Paton

A clear, easy-to-read, keen analysis of today's important economic problems. (460 pages; $4.00 clothbound)

SOCIALISM by Ludwig von Mises
