

cadres, the role of LSWY and JC instructors at school should be enhanced.

LSWY and JC instructors at school must directly organize and guide the organized lives of students and pupils in the LSWY and JC and train and protect them politically. They should be responsible educators who guide the life of students and pupils after school.

The role of nursery school and kindergarten teachers should be raised.

Nursery school and kindergarten teachers are social caretakers and educators of children. They should bring up and educate the youngsters in communism and pave the way for preschool children to school education.

The training of teachers must be strengthened.

A well-regulated system should be established to train teachers and high priority given to teacher training. Teacher-training centers such as normal and teachers' colleges are "seedbeds" for the education of the younger generation.

Only when teacher-training centers educate their students proficiently can they turn out excellent teachers prepared politically and ideologically, scientifically and technologically; only then can all children and students be brought up to be able revolutionary workers. Good boys and girls should be selected and admitted to teacher-training colleges and the level of teaching raised decisively at these colleges.

Teacher-training institutions must also pay great attention to the training of school LSWY and JC instructors and nursery and kindergarten teachers.

Teachers on the active list should be reeducated tirelessly. A system should be established to reeducate the teachers, and teachers in active service reeducated according to plan so as to keep their qualifications always in step with the requirements of the developing reality. Short training courses in teaching should be organized regularly, the integrity of instruction ensured and its quality raised constantly.

Party Guidance of Education

Strengthening the Party guidance of education is a decisive guarantee for developing socialist education fully into a Party and working-class education and successfully solving all problems arising in educational work.

Party guidance of education is, in essence, a guidance based on politics, a political guidance. The central task in the Party guidance of education is to fully apply the fundamental principles of socialist pedagogy in educational work and properly control and guide educational work, so that the Party's educational policy is implemented correctly.

Party organizations must, above all, control and guide educational work at school. School is the basic unit of education of students. Party organizations must always be informed of the work of schools and guide them so that they may carry on educational work to suit the demands of the Party and the interests of the revolution.

Party organizations must give proper guidance to the work of educational administration organs. The Party's educational policy is concretized and put into effect by these organs. Party organizations should guide them to raise their role to correctly implement the Party's educational policy and strengthen the state guidance of educational work.

It is necessary to build up the ranks of teachers solidly and work with them properly.

Party organizations must build up the teaching staff firmly with good people who are closely armed with the Party's unified ideology and have a firm working-class stand and high scientific and theoretical qualifications. Among teachers there must be no one who has not established the Party's unified ideological system.

Party organizations must tighten teachers' political organized life and buckle down to their ideological education. In this way, they will guide all teachers to strive to revolutionize and working-classize themselves and improve their scientific and theoretical qualifications and display a high degree of revolutionary zeal and creative activity in the education of the rising generation.

Work with students must be done well.

The chief revolutionary task assigned to students is to study well. Party organizations should guide students to regard studies as their primary revolutionary task and study energetically. A revolutionary habit of study must be established particularly among university and college students. Thus, all of them will be well versed in their specialized subjects and master at least one foreign language and acquire all necessary qualifications of native cadres before graduation.
