REPUBLICAN CLUB.

A largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Republican Club was held in 6 U. H., Tuesday evening. After the routine business had been despatched, President Bridgham introduced Hon. David Hall Rice of Boston as the first speaker. Mr. Rice strongly urged protection and deprecated free trade. He challenged anyone to show that any country ever existed without a tariff, and did not believe that we can so exist. Much college teaching upon free trade is a deception to the student. What is free trade? He showed the difference between the free trade and protective policy, and discussed the British tariff tax on tea, our tariff on sugar, tariff of one cent a pound on tin plate as examples of the ruinous work of free trade. The Springer Free Wool Bill also received the gentleman's attention. Amid loud applause the speaker closed and Mr. F. W. Tillinghast of Johnston, R. I., was introduced. He gave a very practical view of the beneficial working of protection in his business of woolen manufacture, instancing the great mill at Johnston where a vast business is done and where the employees are prosperous and contented, many of them having houses of their own and savings in the bank, all of which has been accomplished within seven years. Both gentlemen were loudly applauded and received a vote of thanks from the Club.

NEW FOOT BALL RULES SUGGESTED.

The Advisory Committee of the Inter-Collegiate Foot Ball Association held a meeting in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, on Saturday night, March 19, and made several suggestions for amendments to the rules governing championship contests. Three changes were proposed.

The first was in regard to "punt out." In the future, if the catcher muffs the ball from "punt out" it is proposed that that he shall be made to try again. If he fail the second time the ball shall be given to the opponent in the middle of the field.

The second was, if a bona fide try is made for a goal and missed, the ball shall be placed in the middle of the field just as though a goal had been scored.

The third covered the coaching rules. If the referee discovers outsiders coaching, he shall warn him once, and if he commits the offense the second time he shall be ordered outside the ropes.

These changes will be submitted at the meeting of the association next May.

OFFICIAL BASE BALL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Gymnasium will be closed during the entire afternoon on which 'Varsity games are to be played on Lincoln field. Members of the two teams only will be admitted to the dressing rooms through the basement door.

Season tickets admitting to 'Varsity games and grand stand are now on sale and may be obtained from Lucian Sharpe, Jr. Tickets for the balcony of the Gymnasium will be sold for 25 cents. Season tickets will not admit to balcony. Entrance to the grounds will be on Thayer street.

The Sophomores will begin to read an outside German work next week. The first division under Mr. Swift will read W. H. Riehl's "Der Fluch der Schoenheit." The three other divisions under Messrs. Jewett and Crowell will read W. Hauff's "Der Zwerg Nase." The first work is published by Charles H. Kilborn of Boston and the second by D. C. Heath & Co., of Boston. Sophomores are requested to procure copies as soon as possible.

French Books, Le Monde ou L'on S' Ennuie, Athalie, La Fantaines Fables and Choix De Contes Contemporains. College Book Store.

FRESHMEN 9; U. G. S. 6.

The Freshmen nine played its first game of the season yesterday afternoon on Lincoln Field, having as contestants the University Grammar School nine. The afternoon was a good one for ball playing and a large audience, composed principally of students and Grammar School boys, assembled to witness the sport.

The Freshmen, as was expected, won the game, but they had no easy time in doing it. The work of the whole team, with the exception of White and Cook, the first battery, was poor.

The boys from the Grammar School surprised everyone by the excellent showing which they made. The pitcher, although hit rather often during the first few innings, proved to be considerable of a twirler and will puzzle the heavy batters of the Inter-scholastic league. Hoppin at short and Chace on second put up rattling good ball. The chief fault of the team seemed to be lack of ability to play together.

The Freshmen need constant and hard practice. The infield is the weaker point of the nine, although Crosby, Meserolle and Slocum can play better ball than they did yesterday.

The score:

SOPHOMORE MEETING.

A meeting of the Sophomore class is called for next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in No. 6 U. H. Important business is to be brought up and it is to be hoped that all members will be present.

Per order,
President.

COLLEGE NEWS.

The Dartmouth base ball nine starts on its southern trip to-day.

The Columbia College base ball team began training Monday with fifteen men.

Manager Baldwin of the Bowdoin foot ball team was at the college recently, finding out the feeling here in regard to a league with Bowdoin for next summer.

An enthusiastic meeting of Princeton students was held Saturday to consider the question of reviving boating. Final action on the question will be taken next Wednesday.

Manager Dews of the University Grammar School nine, has arranged for a game Saturday, between his team and East Greenwich Academy, at East Greenwich. He has also arranged for a number of other games outside of the Inter-scholastic League.

In a recent decision of the courts in a suit against Prof. Proctor of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, the rights and privileges, conferred on the authorities of the University by James I, of arresting and imprisoning the inhabitants of Cambridge, have been confirmed. The old charter confers this power on the university, without compelling them to regard the ordinary processes of the law.

"CARBON COMPOUNDS."

The above is the title of the new work by Prof. Appleton, now being used by men in Chemistry 3. The special study of the carbon compounds is a new course for Brown. This work aims to give a tolerably complete view of the subject, presenting not only the theoretical side, but also the interesting details of the practical side, as shown in the treatment of certain manufactures. For use in connection with the text book, Prof. Appleton has devised an attractive series of laboratory experiments in carbon compounds which are presented to the students in a neat little volume called the "Organic Supplement to the 'Young Chemist.'" Experiments in this line have, for the most part, involved elaborate appliances and much time, but by this ingenious course marked out by Prof. Appleton, the student beginning the subject will be enabled to perform easily experiments showing all essential properties which usually require much more difficult and involved work. The advantage of this plan is readily apparent. "Carbon Compounds" is, as the author states in the preface, "the third and last of a series of text books on general or descriptive chemistry, prepared for the use of beginners in chemistry."

Base Ball season tickets now on sale. Enquire of Lucian Sharpe.

There are three letters at the HERALD office for James S. Wilson.

The political clubs in college are deserving of generous support this year. When such rallies as those of last Saturday occur it is for the good of Brown and of the parties represented if the students turn out in good numbers to take part in the demonstrations. Every member of the Democratic and Republican clubs will derive great benefit in one way and another from his membership. These clubs have been organized this year and ought not to exist merely on paper since this year there is such a grand opportunity to make party principles a study and to take active part in political demonstrations. We hope that both clubs will receive immediate and substantial increase in membership and then let themselves be heard from during this year which is to be made memorable by an exciting presidential campaign.

The newly-elected Brown Magazine board is an admirably good one. Under its care we feel confident that the literary field—for that is the Magazine's especial charge—will be well cared for. And since the Magazine is the literary representative of Brown it surely deserves the support of all who are interested in our college's advance along literary as well as athletic lines. We predict for the Magazine under the new board a more prosperous and a more useful year than it has yet enjoyed.

The great swear of Hamilcar's son was not a circumstance to the vow registered by Winshipius of Advertismentum, commercial son of Barnaby, when he swore by the socks of Sallust to inaugurate a fortieth Punic War on Coatage. One day last week, descending from his office fastness, with a cohort of clerks he fell upon the tickets of pantaloons, overcoats, ulsters, and suits with such resistless fury that in a few hours all that remained of the old prices was a memory and a few salesmen's stubs. The great territory of Coatage was given up to Sack (also Prince Albert and Cutaway) and now it remains for you to reap the reward and partake of the spoils. Say you are a Brunonian when you enter and it will prove as effective as the Romans' announcement of citizenship.
