INTERCLASS SCHEDULE.

Managers Arrange Series of Five Basketball Games for Month of February.

At a meeting of the managers of the class basketball teams, A. I. Corp for 1911, R. B. Andrews for 1912, A. B. Lemon for 1913, and E. H. Walker for 1914, the following schedule for interclass basketball was decided upon:

- Feb. 8—Juniors vs. Sophomores.
- Feb. 11—Seniors vs. Freshmen.
- Feb. 15—Juniors vs. Freshmen.
- Feb. 15—Seniors vs. Sophomores.
- Feb. 20—Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

This schedule has not as yet been submitted to Dr. Marvel, but it will probably stand as made out.

Large Wrestling Class at Work Under Prof. Herrick.

Professor Herrick, who has charge of the wrestling class, reports that many of the men are doing extremely creditable work. H. P. Babcock '09, has offered prizes for the best wrestling in each class and the competition promises to be keen. At present the class meets every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30. The class includes G. S. Dow '11, L. A. Rounds '11, S. T. Jarvis '11, E. C. Tompkins '11, H. M. Jones '12, J. E. Rouse '13, R. G. Ashbaugh '13, E. T. Brackett '13, C. J. Stevens '13, A. E. Bartlett '14, G. E. Rounne '14, D. A. Adelman '14, I. Marcus '14, W. F. Pride '14, and L. D. Ehmke '14.

Catalogue to Appear Soon.

The new Brown catalogue is now in the hands of the binders, and will probably be out within a week. The catalogue will be of particular interest this year, as it contains the new entrance requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy.

Second Biblical Lecture.

Prof. Richard Morse Hodge of Columbia University will deliver the second of the Biblical Institute lectures this afternoon at 4:30 in Manning Hall. The subject will be "The Matthean Portrait of Christ." This is one of the series on "The Christ of the Four Gospels."

"OBERAMMERGAU."

Mr. Peck Describes Passion Play in Stereopticon Lecture in Union.

The first of a series of lectures, to be given under the auspices of the Brown Union, was held last evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Union auditorium. Mr. Arthur K. Peck spoke on "Oberammergau, and the Passion Play of 1910," giving a realistic and vivid description. The lecture was illustrated by over 150 colored slides, the majority of which were made by Mr. Peck himself.

The lecturer devoted the early part of the evening to a description of the home life of the actors in this wonderful play. Oberammergau is a little German village of 1450 inhabitants, and 700 of these are participants in the Passion Play. The play has been given every 10 years since 1634. Formerly held in the village church yard, it was this year given in a specially constructed theatre capable of seating 4000 people. The stage is uncovered and shows in the rear the snow-capped mountains of Germany. Every actor tries to live the life of the character which it is his part to portray, and the presentation of the play is more especially realistic because they live, and do not act, their parts.

The play lasts the entire day, with an intermission of two hours at noon. It depicts the betrayal of Jesus by Judas, His trial and condemnation by Pontius Pilate, and His death by crucifixion upon the cross. The whole play vibrates with the wonderful intensesness and earnestness of the players, and is considered the most realistic and wonderful depiction possible of the scenes of the New Testament.

Basketball Practice.

The basketball squad held practice last night, and the work of the men was quick and accurate. The shooting and passing were very good. None of the men were injured in the game with Tufts, and the 'Varsity showed up well in the scrimmage. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

'Varsity. Scrubs.
Sullivan, l. f. r. b., Nash McKay, r. f. l. b., Hood Scholze, c. c., Staff Snell, l. b. r. f., Miller Adams, r. b. l. f., Howe

"ART OF LISTENING."

President Faunce Speaks in Chapel of the Value of Careful Attention to Others.

President Faunce addressed the students in chapel yesterday morning, speaking on the "Art of Listening."

All our best friends, he said, are people who can listen quietly and sympathetically. One who is so absorbed in his own matters that he cannot listen to those in which any one else is interested cannot be a true friend.

President Faunce then showed by a few graphic examples what poor listeners most people are and what a large part of the so-called "lies" of men in public life are the result of inaccurate listening. Many inattentive listeners actually believe that they heard a man say what they wanted him to, when perhaps he said exactly the opposite.

Bringing this art of listening to a more practical point, President Faunce then discussed the best way to report a lecture or discussion. He pointed out that stenography makes the speech seem colorless, as it places the illustrations and other side remarks as important as the main argument. We should trace the real backbone of the lecture, he said; the wording is of little value if the thought is right. Among the best examples of this scheme of reporting are the excellent reports of parliamentary procedure in the London "Times," where everything is in the third person and no verbatim report is attempted.

Prof. Randall to Speak at First Junior Smoker.

The Junior class social committee has made arrangements for a number of smokers to be held during the winter term. The first of the series will be on next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the Union. Prof. Randall will talk on "The Engineering and the Academic Man." Cigars and cigarettes will be furnished, and light refreshments will be served. It is the plan to have several such meetings with some member of the faculty as a speaker at each one. The members of the Junior social committee are: H. G. Seidel, W. Pendleton, and H. C. Bumpus, Jr.

SECOND TRIALS.

Debating Squad Cut to Twelve Men.—Make-up of Tentative Teams.

The second trials for the 'Varsity debating teams were held yesterday afternoon from 3:30 to 6:15 in Room P of the Union. The judges were Professors Huntington, Richardson, and Motley. The candidates spoke in pairs on different phases of the question. From the fourteen competitors, the following men were chosen, making up four teams:

Team A—A. F. Newell '11, J. H. Radio, Jr. '13, G. C. Stucker '11, Team B—H. F. Osteyee '13, J. Semonoff '11, I. L. Letts '13. Team C—W. R. Burgess '12, P. H. Hood '12, C. F. Gifford '12. Team D—R. C. Dexter '12, D. G. Donovan '12, J. K. Starkweather '13.

These four teams will debate against each other according to the following schedule:

- B. vs. C., Jan. 27, 2:30 p. m.
- A. vs. D, Jan. 28, 2:30 p. m.
- A. vs. B, Jan. 29, 2:30 p. m.

The make-up of these teams, as given above, by no means indicates the final make-up of the 'Varsity teams. This final make-up will be decided after a series of round-robin debates. These will take place during the next few weeks.

The final affirmative team will debate against Dartmouth at Providence, and the final negative against Williams at Williamstown, Mass.

Freshmen May Have Class Hockey Team.

There will be a meeting of the Freshman class Monday at 1:45 p. m. to consider getting up a class hockey team. If the class agrees, a schedule with some of the high schools of the vicinity will be arranged, and it is possible that an interclass game may be played.

German Club Not to Reorganize This Year.

The German Club, which has existed in the University for several years, under the supervision of the Germanic Department, will not be reorganized this year. It was hoped that it could hold meetings during this term, but it has been practically decided to wait until next year, when it is hoped that a German Club can be formed on a somewhat new plan.

A Remarkable Record.

Perhaps the average reader of our daily sheet has the idea it is our chief joy to perch beside the whirl of college life and croak in melancholy voice. But we have our hours of joy as well as our hours of pain, as we watch the turmoil in the midst of which we live. One of our keenest joys came when we heard recently of the record made by the Freshman class last term. The youngsters may well be proud of having passed through the most trying term of their college career without losing a member through scholastic failure. We congratulate you, gentlemen of 1914.

While the Freshmen are on our minds, we might say further that we could not help thinking, when the President gave his talk yesterday morning on listening, of the peculiar application of the advice to the Freshman class. A Freshman should be seen and not heard. Many men make failures of their college careers because they do not find out what it is all about until after graduation. The sponge attitude is particularly useful for a man who is thrown into any new relation, and should commend itself to the man who is having his first experience in college.

The Cercle Francais.

It is a source of gratification to everyone to note the part which the Cercle Francais is coming to play in the college activities. The members of such clubs so rarely realize their opportunities, that the work of the officers of this organization attracts our attention. The most recent plan, for conducting a public debate in French, is certainly novel, and promises to be of general interest.

An Ode to Victory.

A little rejoicing is in order over our Tufts victory Wednesday night, for it is the first time we have done the trick in several years. Without a coach a five has been developed which has accomplished what professionally coached teams have repeatedly failed to do.

Essays in competition for positions in the New England oratorical contest must be submitted to the Registrar on or before March 10. The contest is open to all students who wish to compete. Essays will be judged by Professors Huntington and Crosby of the English Department. They should be original orations of 1500 to 1800 words. One speaker and one alternate will be chosen from each of the five colleges in the league, Amherst, Bowdoin, Brown, Wesleyan, and Williams. Should the number of competitors warrant it, there will be a preliminary public speaking contest to decide who shall be chosen. The contest is to be held at Bowdoin on May 4. The five judges will be selected from a list of 50 by President F. M. Fallon, head of the league.
