

HARVARD VICTOR, 11-1.

Brown Team Has Bad Midseason Slump and Plays Ragged Ball.

Eleven safe hits and nine errors tell the story of Harvard's overwhelming defeat of the 'Varsity Saturday afternoon. Four pitchers were sent into the box for Brown, but the Crimson batters had no difficulty in connecting with them at will. Eleven safe drives and the loose fielding on the part of the 'Varsity made the score 11 to 1 in favor of the Harvard men.

Harvard played first-class ball, the three errors credited her being on hard chances, and but one of these figured in the run which Brown got in the seventh. McLaughlin fanned seven Brunonians and allowed but two hits with the excellent support of his team.

The game started off well, each side being retired in order in the first. But in the second inning Harvard found Warner for four safeties, and with loose fielding these netted the Crimson four tallies. In the third one more run was scored from a two-bagger, a free pass, and a long sacrifice.

In the fourth Conzelman was sent in to relieve Warner. Harvard scored two runs in the fourth and fifth by two hits and three bases on balls. Clark went in in the sixth, but Harvard found him for two hits, and with two passes and two men hit by the pitcher, three more runs were netted.

McGovern relieved Clark in the eighth. He showed up better than the other men, and allowed but one hit in his two innings. This came after a base on balls and scored one more run.

Brown's single tally came in the seventh. Dukette reached third on errors by Coon and Wigglesworth. Durgin smashed out a two-bagger, and Dukette scored. The other batters were easily retired.

FRENCH DEBATE.

Comparative Merits of French and English as International Language to be Discussed.

A French debate is to be held this evening at eight o'clock in Manning Hall. This is the first time that such a contest has ever been attempted here at Brown, but much interest has been shown, and Prof. Chinard, who is in charge of the affair, looks forward to making it an annual occurrence.

The subject for this year's debate is: "Les merites compares du francais et de l'anglais comme une langue internationale."

The contestants may speak on either side of the question they prefer. All the speeches are to be in French, the awards being made with reference both to the substance of the speeches and to the fluency and accuracy of the French. The prizes are two in number, one of twenty dollars, offered by the university, and a second prize of fifteen, given by the Alliance Francais of this city.

The competitors are, C. F. Archambault '12, A. H. McPhail '14, S. Nathanson '12, T. H. Quigley '11, and J. K. Starkweather '13. The judges for the contest are Prof. Langdon, Dr. Blumer, and Mr. Ruerat.

Mumford and Smith Compete in Swimming Championships.

Mumford '12, captain-elect of the 'Varsity swimming team, and R. L. Smith '14, are entered as Brown's representatives in the annual intercollegiate outdoor swimming championships which are to be held this year at Travers Island, New York, on July 10. Both men are entered to compete in the 100-yard novice race.

The events will consist in the usual sprints, distance races, and dives from 10, 20, and 30-foot platforms, and will be open to all college men. The contestants in each event will be divided into two classes, one a novice class for those who are competing for the first time in an intercollegiate championship match, and the other, the open class, for all others.

E. A. Corey, captain of the Yale baseball team, has been dropped from the squad because of his weakness at the bat.

FRESHMEN WIN.

B. M. C. Durfee Defeated in Ragged Game.—Batting of Dike Feature.

The Freshman baseball team defeated the B. M. C. Durfee High School nine Saturday, at Alumni Field, Fall River, by a score of 18 to 9, in a ragged game. Whitmarsh and Shepard were in the box part of the game and were relieved by Dike. The feature was the stickwork of Dike, who secured four hits, two of which were home runs, and one a three-bagger.

"The Rivals" Well Received at Northampton.

The Sock and Buskin produced "The Rivals" for the fifth time at Northampton, Saturday night, before a large and enthusiastic audience, composed for the most part of Smith College girls, who applauded vigorously the efforts of the feminine characters in the cast. It is thought that the trip was a success financially, and that it will become a regular feature in the future, together with other long trips.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES.

Brown Players Defeated in Wesleyan Meet.—Scholze Wins Only Match.

Wesleyan defeated Brown in tennis at Middletown Saturday by a score of 5 to 1. The only victory for Brown was won by Scholze in the second singles match. The Brown team showed the effects of its recent hard match with Trinity, especially in the doubles, both of these going to Wesleyan. Sisson replaced Hood in the doubles. The scores were:

Singles.

James (W.) defeated Guild (B.), 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

Scholze (B.) defeated Crane (W.), 6-3, 6-4.

Rowell (W.) defeated Hood (B.), 6-2, 6-1.

Clark (W.) defeated Brown (B.), 6-2, 6-2.

Doubles.

James and Crane (W.) defeated Scholze and Sisson (B.), 6-4, 6-3.

Rowell and Clark (W.) defeated Guild and Brown (B.), 6-3, 6-2.

Civics Club Disbands, Due to Lack of Interest.

A meeting of the Civics Club held recently resulted in the taking of action which will disband the organization, for an indefinite period, if not permanently. The meeting was very poorly attended. The decision resulting from the discussion which was carried on by those present was that there was not sufficient interest among the undergraduates to warrant the continuation of such a society, and definite action toward disorganization was taken.

An explanation of this action is found in the following communication which has been addressed to the Herald by the President of the society:

To the Editor of the Herald:

It seems best to the officers of the Brown Civics Club that the organization be disbanded, at least for the present. The club is one which has had an intermittent existence of more than a quarter of a century at Brown, and it would appear that there should be an excellent field for its activities. Nevertheless, during the last few seasons there has been a dearth of undergraduate interest to such an extent that it is almost impossible to assemble

The Harvard Game.

Of the defeat Saturday, little can and little need be said. It is enough to express our confidence in the ability of the team to "come back," an ability which they have shown in game after game this Spring. A mid-season slump is not without precedent in the history of many a championship team. Let us take up the slogan of "on to Yale," with assurance that the group of men who are representing the college this year on the diamond will justify our confidence in next Wednesday's game.

Morituri Salutant.

With this issue the Civics Club gives formal announcement of its demise. Whatever may have seemed our attitude towards the club in its life, in its decease we have only words of sympathy. We believe that the club has played a useful part in presenting to the undergraduates from time to time, through the agency of prominent men, live political issues. If the death of the club means a decline in interest in civic affairs, we must feel keen regret at the situation. Let us hope, however, that the functions that the club seemed fitted to perform will be taken up by other agencies, and that the loss of the organization will mean only a greater concentration of effort.

President Faunce and Professor Jacobs Lead Discussion.

President Faunce, Prof. Walter B. Jacobs, with several other educators of Rhode Island, led a discussion before the Barnard Club, Saturday, on the question, "What changes should be made in the work of the high schools of the state to render it more nearly adapted to the needs of a majority of the students?" The discussion followed a banquet, at which a large number of the members of the university were present. The aim of these meetings of the a quorum at its meetings, except when a well-known speaker is secured to make an address.

The Intercollegiate Civics League, of which the Brown club constitutes a chapter, is one of the most active, and also one of the most widely known and respected undergraduate societies in the United States. Most of the college clubs carry on extensive social and political work during the year, and publish their proceedings in yearbooks which are often real contributions to this particular field of knowledge. The Williams College Club, for instance, publishes such a work each year. Moreover, all of the other college clubs send delegates to the annual conventions of the Intercollegiate Civics League, the delegates often travelling a thousand miles in order to attend. While the Brown Civics Club has always been the means of getting several leaders of thought in the political world to give addresses to Brown students each year, it is perhaps possible that some other undergraduate society might serve the same function just as well. At any rate, owing to the apparent lack of interest in the club, and the failure of its members to pay their annual dues, it seems best that the club be discontinued, and that notice be sent to the officers of the Intercollegiate Civics League of its abolishment. If at any time in the future the need of such an organization as the Civics Club be felt at Brown, it can perhaps be started afresh with brighter prospects.

R. C. Murphy,
Pres. Brown Civics Club.

(The Herald invites communications on subjects of interest, but does not hold itself responsible for the opinions expressed therein.)

To the Editor of the Herald:

As a student in Brown University, I wish hereby to publicly express what I believe to be the sentiment of the Brown student.

The result of scholarly thought should always be respected, particularly, if when based upon accurate and complete information and inspired by a sympathetic spirit, it is expressed in the form of criticism. It is the hanger-on, who, swayed by another's superior intellectual power, indulges in spontaneous, extravagant denunciation that always forces the true critic into embarrassed silence. Especially inconsiderate is he who, without extraordinary moderation and unusually careful investigation, would cast aspersions upon the competence of those better qualified to judge than himself. I say this with particular reference to educational administration.

Every Brown undergraduate must realize that there is considerable probability that any serious defect in a collegiate system will be perceived by some at least of the members of the college faculty. To suppose that a body of select men, themselves once college students, developed in critical discernment, not only by years of undergraduate and post-graduate observation, but by training as teachers and administrators, familiarized by personal contact with the difficulties of successive generations of students, and closely associated at present and in the past with educators of wide experience—to suppose that such a body of specialists should need enlightenment in regard to the defects of an educational system by the average flippant undergraduate seems hardly conceivable. If what may seem a much needed reform is not introduced, it is far more probable that after careful discussion a more conservative policy was deemed necessary by those who have the interests of the college most deeply at heart. A dignified and well-substantiated expression of student sentiment is always in order. A demonstration of the business ability, responsibility, and foresight of the student body is most eagerly desired, but why not leave screaming and kicking to the children!
