

I firmly believe that a safe and sound arms agreement could be reached in short order if the President of the United States and the leader of the Soviet Union were to rise above all the differences and controversies between our two nations and were to demand that the arms race must and shall be stopped, that a nuclear arms treaty must and shall be achieved.

If both men ordered their subordinates in and out of uniform to achieve agreement, agreement could be achieved. The haggling over the arcane and esoteric that now overwhelms and undermines all arms control efforts would end.

The important things would become important. Details would be treated as details. We'd get a treaty. And we'd survive.

My goal is not simply to be elected President. My goal is to use the office of President to begin the process of finally, once and for all, banishing nuclear weapons from the face of the Earth.

That is a goal that is worthy of this nation. . . worthy of your support and help.

To bring this about, I need money and votes, in that order.

I need money to establish the danger of nuclear war as the issue that is so important, so all encompassing, that all candidates for President must be measured on that issue.

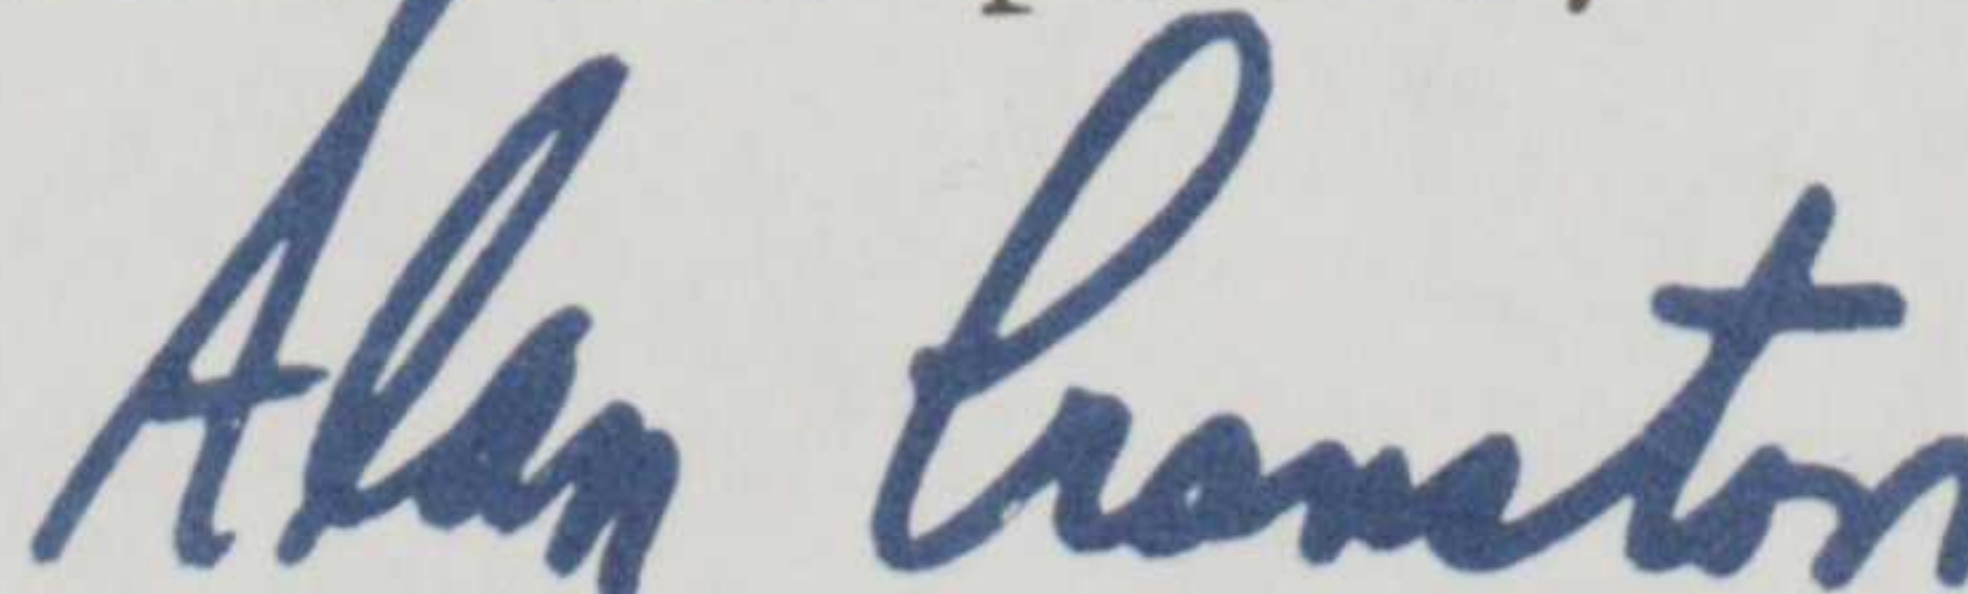

I need money to take my message to the American people.

If you believe as I do that the threat of nuclear war must be stopped, I ask you to send $50 $100, $250 or whatever you can afford.

This issue is more than my life; it is your life, too.

Join me. It is almost midnight on the doomsday clock. We haven't much time left.

Yours for peace,

Alan Cranston

P.S. Early support is critical to the success of any campaign. Whatever you contribute, up to $250, is matched by federal funds. So please, be as generous as possible and respond as soon as possible. Many thanks.
