

● Russia Would March in 24 Hours

No matter whether one traveled in Scandinavia or in Germany, in Switzerland or in Italy and France, everywhere people are fearful and apprehensive.

The cold war between the USA and Soviet Russia is going on with unabated strength. Many people are almost fatalistic about the coming struggle.

Should the western allies withdraw their occupation troops most Europeans are convinced that the Russians would march to the Rhine within 24 hours.

● Pastor Niemoeller Is Consistent

Pastor Martin Niemoeller has just returned from a three months evangelistic tour of Australia and New Zealand.

A few years ago the Communists attempted to play up the Hitler-hating Niemoeller in order to advance the cause of the Bolsheviks. However, Niemoeller recently made a lecture tour of the United States and during his visit here he made it plain that Communism was many times worse—more brutal, more murderous, more anti-Christian, than Nazism. He told us in a little more refined language than this, that if we simply fought the war in order to take the German people out from under the Nazis in order to place them under the Communists we were "all wet."

Since then the Communists and Red propagandists have seldom mentioned the name of Niemoeller.

Pastor Niemoeller is "consistent." Any person who was against Hitler and Nazism would necessarily be against the far more brutal Communists.

In the recent elections, both Australia and New Zealand went against National Socialism, the so-called, "Labor Party," which in reality only enslaves the workers.

Without a doubt Pastor Niemoeller's preaching of the truth helped to swing those countries against the Socialist Laborites and return those countries to political sanity.

● An Amusing Typographical Error

In my last a few faults escaped; some belong to the author, but most to the printer. Let each take his share of the blame, confess and amend for the future.

Printers indeed should be very careful how they omit a figure or letter, for by such means sometimes a terrible alteration is made in the sense.

I have heard, that once in a new edition of the "Common Prayer," the following sentence, "We shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye," by the omission of a single letter became, "We shall all be HANGED in a moment," etc., to the surprise of the congregation it was read to.—John Clyde Oswald in "Benjamin Franklin, Printer."

● The Faith of Some is Weakening

Because Noah's Ark was not immediately found on the recent expedition, some are now telling us that Mount Ararat is in India. It reminds me of those who predicted the coming of Christ and then kept changing the dates when He didn't come on the date they set in 1848 or 1871 or 1875 or 1914 or 1917, etc. There is no scientific or historical reason for placing the Bible's Mount Ararat in India.

The Lord is probably only testing the FAITH of some to see if they are walking by faith or by sight. The Lord is giving the atheist a little time to bellow the louder in order that he may be set down the harder when the proper time comes.

● A Hypocritical Nation

"I will send him against an hypocritical nation" (Isa 10:6).

Hypocrisy is to know and to do not—to set yourself in rebellion against God.

Just look at our own nation. We have the most Bibles of any people on earth and yet at the same time we are the most immoral and most criminal nation in history.

We give the most money to churches and missions (some
