

EXHIBIT RULES

1. ELIGIBILITY. The privilege of leasing exhibit space is open to organizations whose objectives include the promotion and extension of freedom in the face of any type of totalitarianism, and who do not espouse domestic violence or bigotry in any form; and to businesses providing goods or services of interest to such organizations.

Allied Organizations for Freedom reserves the right to reject applications for exhibit space on the basis of its sole judgment as to the appropriateness of the exhibit or the exhibitor's interests.

2. Hours. Exhibitors may have access to the exhibit space at 6:00 a.m. on July 26. Exhibits should be in place and completed by 8:30 a.m.

All exhibits must be removed and the space left in the condition in which it was found by 10:00 p.m., July 26.

No exhibit shall be dismantled before the conclusion of the cocktail hour at 7:00 p.m.

The Forum program has specified the following time periods when participants will be encouraged to visit the exhibits:

Morning coffee	8:15-8:55 a.m.	Afternoon break:	3:45-4:00 p.m.
Coffee break	10:15-10:30 a.m.	Cocktail hour	5:50-7:00 p.m.

To ensure participants' presence in the exhibit area, the specified refreshments will be served there and also, according to present plans, the luncheon will be served in that area.

3. Activities & Responsibilities. Exhibitors may display printed or other materials of their choice, except that any audio equipment must be kept at low volume so as not to interfere with other exhibitors, no noise makers may be distributed, and the exhibitor's activities must be confined to the space to which he/she has been assigned.

Membership in the exhibitor's organization may be promoted, appropriate items sold, and displays put in place, but the protection of all materials, equipment, or money is the responsibility of the exhibitor. Any needed insurance coverage must be provided by the exhibitor.

Exhibitors may NOT share with others any part of the space allotted to them unless the other party registers with the AOF Forum Committee. Exhibitors may not display materials of any organization other than that of the organization to whom the space has been leased, or with whom it is officially shared (i.e., sharer must have registered with AOF as herein provided).

The exhibitor must maintain and keep in good order his exhibit and the space for which he/she has contracted.

4. Identification. All exhibitors' representatives must be identified by the official AOF exhibitors badge. This will admit the representative to the exhibit area and also to the lecture sessions of the Forum, but not to the luncheon or dinner sessions, for which special tickets must be reserved and paid for.

An exhibitor's badge may not be transferred to any other person for any purpose.

5. Overnight Reservations. Exhibitors' representatives who wish to make reservations to spend the night before or after the Forum should make their arrangements directly with the Sheraton-Boxborough, in Boxborough, Mass. (Tel.: 617/263-8701.)
