

A.J. Muste Memorial Institute

1988 ROSTER OF GRANTS AND SPONSORSHIPS

Austin Peace and Justice Coalition

Austin, TX: $2,000

For a student organizer training program.

Books to Prisoners Project

Left Bank Books

Seattle, WA: $1,000

For a program that provides free books on peace and social justice to prisoners nationally.

Boston Mobilization For Survival

Cambridge, MA: $750

For expanding the activities of the Youth Task Force.

Cabin Creek Center for Work & Environmental Studies

New York, NY: $2,000

For production and editing of The Cutting Edge, a documentary film on the use of nonviolence in a contemporary labor struggle.

Central America Education Fund

Cambridge, MA: $1,734

For production expenses of a videotape and accompanying discussion booklet on a Student/Labor delegation to El Salvador.

Citizens for Peace in Space

Colorado Springs, CO: $2,000

For publicity and educational materials in conjunction with a "Stop the Militarization of Space" rally in Colorado Springs.

Disarmament Campaigns

The Hague, Netherlands: $795

For producing and distributing a Spanish edition of this international peace movement publication. (Sponsored through the CALC Foundation, New York, NY)

Eugene Peaceworks/War Resisters League

Eugene, OR: $4,750

For an organizer training program in the Pacific Northwest.

Fellowship of Reconciliation

Nyack, NY: $1,500

For operating the Plowshares coffeehouse during the Third Special Session on Disarmament at the United Nations.

Friends of Hibakusha

San Francisco, CA: $2,000

For developing and distributing an educational brochure on the survivors of the nuclear bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Greenham Women Against Cruise Missiles

New York, NY: $1,809.75

For educational materials concerning the deployment of medium-range nuclear missiles in Great Britain and Europe.

The Honeywell Project

Minneapolis, MN: $2,500

For educational materials and program expenses during their 20th anniversary celebrations.

Hope College

Holland, MI: $2,500

For the dedication of the A.J. Muste room at the Hope College Library, including a commemorative lecture and exhibition.

Icarus/Tammouz Productions

New York, NY: $2,500

For production of a videotape titled People Power, examining the use of nonviolence as a strategy for social change.

International Jewish Peace Union

New York, NY: $2,500

To expand this group's educational activities seeking peaceful resolution to conflicts in the Middle East.

International Nonviolent Initiatives

(formerly International Seminars for Training in Nonviolent Action)

Waltham, MA: $840.75

For educational programs fostering non-violence internationally through distribution of publications and study materials, and maintenance of a library.

Learning Alliance

New York, NY: $1,500

For an "Educating for Nonviolent Social Change" seminar.

Lynchburg Peace Education Center

Lynchburg, VA: $1,200

For staging and promoting a statewide high school speaking contest based on Martin Luther King, Jr.'s legacy of nonviolence.

Mapat Hashalom ("Peace Cloth")

Tel Aviv, Israel: $1,000

For educational activities exploring peaceful solutions to the conflict between Israelis and Palestinians. (Sponsored through Lilith-Noga)

Military Counseling Network

Rottenburg, West Germany: $1,000

For the "Women in the Military Project" providing information on conscientious objection and counseling opportunities to women in the military. (Sponsored through Ohne Rustung Leben).

National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty

Washington, D.C.: $2,000

For the "Millions to Kill, Pennies to Heal" project to promote the abolishment of the death penalty in Texas.

Nicaragua Solidarity Network of Greater New York

New York, NY: $4,921.25

For educational materials promoting peaceful alternatives to current conflicts in Central America.

Options For The Future

New York, NY: $23.75

For this group's traveling bookmobile that distributes literature on social issues at community events in the New York area.

Prisoner Visitation and Support

Philadelphia, PA: $2,500

For hiring a recruitment coordinator to expand their program of national prison visitors.

Resource Center for Nonviolence

Santa Cruz, CA: $960

For expanding the Urgent Action Network of their Middle East program.

(CONTINUED)