

Zionist Organization of America

Leading American Zionism for 100 years

Abdallah el-Shami, one of the Arab terrorists who was recently set free by Yasir Arafat: "Clinton should get a bullet in his head when he arrives here."

March 15, 1999

Dear ZOA Member:

Yasir Arafat recently released 60 more Palestinian Arab terrorists from jail — including five involved in killings of Americans.

And one of the freed terrorists was Islamic Jihad leader Abdallah el-Shami, who had declared on television before President Clinton's recent visit to Gaza: "Clinton should get a bullet in his head when he arrives here."

The Israeli Ambassador to the U.N., Dr. Dore Gold, recently said: "Releasing terrorists directly endangers Israeli lives."

Letting these killers go sends a message that Arab terrorists can get away with murder.

We at the ZOA are leading the fight to expose Arafat's releases of terrorists and to pressure him to stop.

The ZOA initiated a letter, signed by 34 Members of Congress, protesting against Arafat's "revolving door" policy of releasing killers. News of this important Congressional action appeared in newspapers across the United States and abroad.

It sent a powerful message — that the United States Congress will not be silent in the face of Arafat's refusal to keep terrorists in jail.

(continued on next page)