

THE LAW by Frederic Bastiat

What is law? What should it be? By what process is the law perverted from its proper function into an instrument of robbery? (76 pages; 65¢ paper-bound, $1.25 cloth-bound)

†LIBERTY: A PATH TO ITS RECOVERY by F. A. Harper

A thought-provoking explanation of human liberty and its present plight. A method for measuring lost liberty is here offered. (159 pages, indexed; $1.00 paper-bound, $1.50 clothbound)

†MAINSRING by Henry Grady Weaver

A revised edition, in a new format. This readable and fascinating history of human progress and how NOT to stop it has sold more than 200,000 copies. Many persons have referred to this book as the best introduction ever written on liberty. (279 pages, indexed; $1.50 paper-bound, $2.50 cloth-bound)

PLANNED CHAOS by Ludwig von Mises

"The case for the free and against the planned economy . . . in simple nontechnical language . . . many varied and stimulating ideas."—William Henry Chamberlin. (90 pages; 65¢ paper-bound, $1.35 cloth-bound)

THE TVA IDEA by Dean Russell

A readable explanation of the social, political, and economic consequences of the TVA "idea" in practice. (108 pages, indexed; 75¢)

WILL DOLLARS SAVE THE WORLD? by Henry Hazlitt

A thorough, clear exposition of the facts and ideas which relate to foreign lending. (95 pages; 75¢)

Books Available through the Foundation

(†book review on request)

THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC SYSTEM by Edwin Vennard and Robb M. Winsborough

With only one-fifteenth of the world's people, we own three-fourths of the world's automobiles, one-half of all telephones and radios, three-fourths of all television sets, and so on. This book explains why. Over 100 charts and tables. (96 pages; $1.00 paper-bound)

BUREAUCRACY by Ludwig von Mises

The author explains that bureaucracy is neither good nor bad in itself. It is an appropriate technique for the conducting of administrative agencies such as the police departments. It is only when these bureaucratic methods are applied in economic activities that they result in disastrous rigidity. (125 pages; $2.00 clothbound)

HUMAN ACTION by Ludwig von Mises

Dr. Mises "treats economics itself as merely part of a more universal science, 'praxeology,' or 'the science of every kind of human action.' . . . This book is the counterweight of Marx's 'Das Kapital' and of Lord Keynes'