Richard Weaver

IDEAS HAVE CONSEQUENCES

Ideas do have consequences and Weaver shows that the denial of truth has led to dictatorship. By holding to a truth beyond ourselves, he suggests, liberty can be regained.

Videotapes: FEE Classics

As videocassette recorders have become more and more popular, we have had many requests for videotapes of FEE lectures. The first five in a series of FEE Classics are now available. These and future videotapes preserve timeless ideas on liberty in an attractive and handy format.

Each videotape is approximately 60 minutes long and is in VHS format, professionally edited. A short introduction to FEE at the end of each message makes these videotapes well suited for use in classes or meetings.

William L. Law

THE MYTH OF THE CLASS STRUGGLE

There are no "classes" in a free society, and therefore no "class struggle." Those who earn wages and those who earn profits are partners who share the benefits of a market economy.

Mr. Law, a businessman and trustee of FEE, is a popular seminar lecturer. (Color) 0750VF

Leonard E. Read

THE ESSENCE OF AMERICANISM

The ideas that sparked the spiritual, political, and economic antecedents of the "American" miracle. The twentieth century departed from those concepts—with grave consequences.
(Black and white)

HOW TO ADVANCE LIBERTY

Drawing on many years of experience, Read offers his wisdom on the effective methods for advancing the principles of limited government and the free market.

Benjamin A. Rogge

COMPETITION AND MONOPOLY

The late Dr. Rogge, was well known for his captivating wit and wisdom. Here he challenges the "fashionable" notions of monopoly which focus on the economy only at a moment in time. Open competition is an endless "leapfrogging" process.

Hans F. Sennholz

MONEY AND UNEMPLOYMENT

The story of the age of inflation, of fiat money given "legal tender" status, of runaway inflation and the disruption of the economy, including the massive unemployment that accompanies the growth of the welfare state—all related in Professor Sennholz's engaging style. (Color) 0990VF
