Family Research Council has no plans to ever give up. But which path we take in the days ahead is in God's hands. Please know that we need your support, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you for reading along with me. May God bless you, your family, and all you do in this new year.

Sincerely,

Gary L. Bauer

P.S. As you consider a gift to help keep FRC strong in 1998, please remember to send us your Christmas updates and family photos, too. As you may know, your pictures are added to a series of montages that hang on the walls here at FRC headquarters. The beauty and familiarity of these photos act as a daily reminder to my staff, visitors, and to me of the reason this organization exists. Your prayers, financial support, and encouragement are greatly appreciated and essential to the good fight we continue to wage.

FRC is a tax-exempt 501(c) (3) charitable organization. Donations to FRC are tax-deductible consistent with IRC section 170.
