

Transportation—The Way Ahead

16mm—color—7:45 minutes—1977

With gasoline in short supply your Government is looking at new energy sources for automobiles.
U.S. Department of Energy. Available from DOE Film Library, TIC, P.O. Box 62, Oak Ridge, TN 37830.

Free on loan.Unseen Journey

16mm—color—28 minutes—1959

The viewer sees how oil is brought to the surface, transported hundreds of miles overland by the "biggest inch" in the world and how it is surfaced offshore and piped into waiting tankers. The film gives a rich insight into that part of America concerned with transporting oil.

(For groups of senior high school level and above.)

Gulf Oil Corporation. Available from Association Films, Inc., 866 Third Ave., New York, NY 10022.

Free on loan.Wayleave

16mm—color—24 minutes

The strip of land in which a pipeline is buried is called the wayleave.

The technical problems of building any pipeline can be daunting, but when a pipeline's route must pass through a developed, inhabited area the problem focuses on the rights and wishes of people.

This film tells in human terms the story of the planning, discussions and negotiations that were necessary to obtain the wayleave for the 130 mile pipeline to carry crude oil from BP's Forties Field from its landfall at Cruden Bay to Grangemouth Refinery. It also shows the consideration given to environmental problems and how the pipeline was constructed.

BP North America, Inc. Available from Modern Talking Picture Service, Inc., 2323 New Hyde Park Road, New Hyde Park, NY 11040.

Free on loan.

TRAVEL

Alaska—The Great Land

16mm—color—27 1/2 minutes—1971

This film examines Alaska as it is today and brings us through its history, from Bering's discovery in 1741 to the discovery of oil close to the Arctic shore—oil in a quantity which cannot fail to influence Alaska's future.

BP North America, Inc., 620 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10020.

Free on loan.Lincoln Heritage Trail

16mm—color—28 minutes

This film describes scenic highlights of the 993-mile trail through Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, searching out places where Lincoln lived, worked and traveled in the years before he became the nation's 16th President. Old photos, daguerreotypes, pen-and-ink sketches, water colors and drawings—as well as modern color photography—show the viewer what life along the trail was like in Lincoln's time and today. Illinois Information Service, 107 State Office Building, Springfield, IL 62706.

Free on loan.