O GOD!

THOUGH---

The fig tree shall not blossom, neither fruit be in the vines.
And the plenty bows to lacking,
And we're thirsting for new wines,
Though the olive's labor faileth,
And the fields shall yield no meat,
And the oil of gladness waneth,
And for gain there's but defeat,
Though the flock's cut off from coting,
And no herd is in the stalls,
And the little flock is scattered,
And no fatted calf e'er bawls.....

YET---

I'll rejoice in God, my Saviour,
I will joy in Him alone,
He's the God of my salvation,
Who His grace has fully shown;
For the LORD'S my strength forever,
And he'll make my feet like hinds,
With ones of spir'tual minds;
I'll rejoice in God unfailing,
My sufficiency is He,
For YAHWEH is all I'm needing,
And I'll trust His sovereignty

Inspired preaching is a manifestation of The Incarnate Word, from The Written Word, by The Spoken Word.

The real sermon exists not on paper, or in the preachers mind--- but, in the living moment of proclamation.

A preacher should have the skill to teach the unlearned simply, roundly, and plainly; for teaching is of more importance than exhorting. LUTHER
