

How to pay your children a tax-deductible allowance. Page 58

- How to leave money to your heirs so creditors can't touch it. Page 12
- If bank and money market fund both offer same interest rate, one pays substantially more than the other. See page 171.
- Deductible contribution to IRA for a year when you don't work. Legal! Page 274
- Withdrawals from IRA must start at age 70 1/2, but they can't stop you from putting money back in. Page 274
- Which bills to pay first. Your good credit rating depends on knowing. Page 193
- What never to tell an insurance adjuster. First thing said after loss can be worst mistake. Page 283
- How to travel free on luxury cruise ships. Lots of your fellow passengers are doing it but they never let on. Page 24
- IRS sends enormous refund by mistake. Taxpayer keeps it all. Perfectly legal. Page 100
- When service contract for home appliance is waste of money. Page 20
- How to beef up your life insurance at rock bottom cost if you're not sure you can pass a physical. Page 288
- How homeowners insurance companies scare you into buying more than you need. (How much is enough? See page 307.)
- What "all risk" policies don't cover. Are you missing the protection you need most? Page 310
- You can't lose with U.S. Government securities, right? That's the sales pitch, but watch out for what the Treasury guarantee does not cover. Page 420
- How to make your vacation tax-deductible without even pretending it's a business trip. Page 25
- Best credit card to use abroad. Never mind what the ads say. See page 198.
- Best remaining tax shelter in America. Page 80
- What the IRS computers are looking for when they scan your tax return. How to put them off the scent without telling anything but the truth. Page 109
- How to get your money out of a mutual fund fast. Never mind the