

Ideas on Liberty

Three issues only; No. 1 (May 1955), No. 2 (September 1955), and No. 3 (November 1955). Each is a collection of short essays and articles, indexed in the December 1956 issue of The Freeman.

96 pages. 50¢ each, 3 for $1.00.

T. S.
ASHTON

The Treatment of Capitalism by Historians

Some facts about the "Industrial Revolution" which help to explode a few popular misconceptions. Reprinted from Capitalism and the Historians.

36 pages. University of Chicago Press, 1954. 35¢ paper.

Thomas H.
BARBER

Where We Are At

As if chatting with a neighbor, the author points out forces that have brought war, debt, confusion, and frustration.

255 pages. Scribners, 1950. $1.50 paper.

Eugen von
BÖHM-BAWERK

Capital and Interest

The first available English translation by Prof. Hans F. Sennholz and Mr. George D. Huncke, of the final edition of this economic classic. In three volumes:

- I History and Critique of Interest Theories, 512 pages
- II Positive Theory of Capital, 480 pages
- III Further Essays on Capital and Interest, 256 pages

Indexed. Libertarian Press, 1959.
3 volume edition, boxed, $25.00 the set.
Single volume edition $15.00 cloth.

Eugen von
BÖHM-BAWERK

The Exploitation Theory

A classical exposure of the theory of interventionism that has spread stagnation over so much of the world; excerpts from Capital and Interest described above.

95 pages. Libertarian Press, 1960. $1.50 paper.

Eugen von
BÖHM-BAWERK

Value and Price

If the exploitation theory is wrong, what theory is right? These excerpts from Capital and Interest explain the subjective theory of value.

160 pages. Libertarian Press, 1960. $2.00 paper.

The Rise and Fall of Society

An investigation of the role played by man's economic activities in shaping the societies in which he has lived and reasons why the economic order occasionally bogs down.

168 pages. Devin-Adair, 1959. $3.95 cloth

Material Human Progress

A businessman's testimony for the competition to be found only in a free market.

107 pages. Stratford Press, 1954. $2.00 cloth.

The Federalist: A Classic on Federalism and Free Government

The first book-length examination of The Federalist concepts of free government under the American Constitution with its protective devices of all sorts against "democratic despotism."

378 pages, indexed. Johns Hopkins Press, 1961.
$6.50 cloth.

States, Contracts and Progress: Dynamics of International Wealth

To enjoy the advantages of capitalism, underdeveloped nations must learn to respect contracts and property rights.

128 pages. Oceana, 1960. $1.50 paper, $3.50 cloth.

Ten Thousand Commandments

A popularly-written study of the antitrust laws and their effect. "This book is not for lawyers, but for people."

214 pages, indexed. Prentice-Hall, 1951. $1.50 paper.

The Peoples' Pottage

A collection of three essays, "The Revolution Was," "Ex America," and "The Rise of Empire," dramatically describing the modern decline of freedom in America.

174 pages. Caxton, 1953. $3.00 cloth.

The Christian History of the Constitution of the United States, with an Introduction by Felix Morley. Joseph Allan Montgomery, Editor. A documentary volume, beautifully selected and bound.

436 pages, indexed. American Christian Constitution Press, 1960. $7.50 cloth.

Frank
CHODOROV

Jacob Dolson
COX

Gottfried
DIETZE

Harold M.
FLEMING

Harold M.
FLEMING

Garet
GARRETT

Verna M.
HALL
(Compiler)