

Final formulation - 27th March-NAC

- Provided that the request for information shall ordinarily not exceed 500 words, provided further, that no such application shall be rejected on the above grounds. Provided further that the applicant may separately add annexures relevant to the application.

OR

- Provided that the request for information shall ordinarily not exceed 500 words (excluding annexures), provided further, that no such application shall be rejected on the above grounds.

IN PLACE OF: (This formulation was presented at the NAC meeting on 26th February)

- Provided that the request for information shall ordinarily relate only to one subject matter, and shall ordinarily not exceed 500 words, provided further, that no such application shall be rejected on the above grounds. Provided further that the applicant may separately add annexures relevant to the application.

Or

- Provided that the request for information shall ordinarily relate only to one subject matter, and shall ordinarily not exceed 500 words (excluding annexures), provided further, that no such application shall be rejected on the above grounds.