

Then one day, a man got mad at me, and gave me a verbal tongue lashing, and I just took it, and felt sorry for him. I knew exactly how he was suffering inwardly, and I actually felt sorry for him, and wished he had the joy and peace in his heart that I had in mine. And after he was gone, I wondered what had happened to me. It had always been my nature to fight back, and give full measure for every word that came my way. And I marvelled. And then I discovered that the things I once loved, such as movies, dances, clubs, entertainments of the world were distasteful to me, and I felt uncomfortable in them. I also discovered that whereas the Bible had always been the driest of reading for me, it now became full of life, and I found joy and pleasure in reading it. And I understood the meaning of the scripture, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." Hallelujah! A New Creature! Not the same old boy, worked over, but a new creation.

I loved the Bible so much that I buried myself in it, studying it daily. Men tried to loan me books to help me understand the Bible, but I said, "God revealed to me things in fifteen seconds that men had tried forty two years to make me believe, so He can give me the understanding He wants me to have, from studying His Word." And I still thank God that He put that in my heart in the beginning. It has kept me continually seeking after more and more of Him and His Wonderful Mysteries, not following after the silly creds and doctrines and divisional things that man has hatched out of his own imagination, but continuing onward with Him, into the wonderful fairyland of His Grace, exploring, day by day, the beauties, the untold wealth of his riches, as He reveals to us the wonderful things that man has never told, and that we ourselves can tell no man.

This wonderful Word tells me a wonderful story of redemption. How man, though he is born in sin, and full of iniquity, can be changed, transformed, through faith in Jesus Christ, and his heart cleansed from sin, so that he is no longer subject to the bondage of sin. It tells me how that Jesus Christ became sin, that we might be made THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD IN HIM.

It tells me a wonderful story of how God sent His Holy Ghost into the world, to come into my body, to dwell in me, that I might be made partaker of the divine nature of God Himself. It tells me how that if I walk in obedience to Him, keeping His commandments, He will transform me completely, causing me to be conformed to the image of His own Son, Jesus Christ.

It tells me that Jesus is coming again some day, to take out of the world, those who are prepared, to go away with Him and to be forever with Him throughout eternity. It tells me that I may be one of that number, if I continue to follow Him, and walk in His ways. And in the meantime, while I am here preparing, He will keep me free from sin, not suffering me to be tempted beyond that which I can endure, and for every temptation He will provide a way of escape.

Many of these promises I have experienced, and found them true. So many of them, that I know in my heart He is able to fulfill every promise He has made.

Through Him I have found peace for my unworthy soul. That old tautness of mind and body, and the nervous tension has vanished away, and left me with a continual well of joy unspeakable, springing up within me, so that in a world of turmoil, where there is sickness and sorrow, and grief and heartaches on every hand. I am continually rejoicing, and praising and thanking My Saviour, wanting to shout, and sometimes do shout with sheer joy. GLORY HALLELUJAH!

We have learned that He is not only Our Saviour, but He is our family Physician, and no other doctor but Him has been needed in our home for over four years. He heald me of Piles which I had suffered for twenty two years. When I came into the knowledge that He is my physician, I suddenly put aside the medicine, and in four days the piles had disappeared. My body grows stronger year by year, until at the present time I am working every other week. ten
