

COMING EVENTS IN THE REGION

NOVEMBER 7 -- Rhode Island area meeting, with people from the University of Rhode Island, Rhode Island School of Design, Brown, and Pembroke attending, others welcome. Contact Amy Merrill, Pembroke Box 675, or Andy Colonna, SDA Memorial Union, U.R.I., Kingston, Rhode Island.

NOVEMBER 10 -- Forum on International Affairs at Alumnae Hall, Pembroke College, Providence, R. I. Speakers on U.S. policy in Vietnam, China, and Latin America. Contact Larry Alexander at Brown for details.

NOVEMBER 11 -- CNVA is sponsoring a vigil at Fort Devons, Massachusetts, from 11:30 to 6:30. There will be leafletting and possibly civil disobedience. For more information contact New England CNVA, RFD 1, Box 197B, Voluntown, Conn., 203-376-9970. In the Boston area, Dave Reed at 547-4949.

NOVEMBER 19 -- Friday -- Teach-in on Vietnam at Dartmouth, from 5:00 P.M. Spaulding Auditorium, Dartmouth, Hanover, N.H. For more information contact John Spritzler, 302A Cohen Hall, Dartmouth.

NOVEMBER 20 -- Saturday -- Conference at the University of Bridgeport Student Center: "Are We Educating for War or Peace?" Speeches, discussions, workshops: Role of the Schools, the Role of the Family and Community, the Role of the International Community. For reservations, call Westport, Conn. 227-6212.

NOVEMBER 27 -- Saturday -- MARCH ON WASHINGTON. See enclosed.

DECEMBER 3-5 -- Vietnam conference at Amherst with speakers, workshops, and seminars. Elliott Isenberg, 808C Amherst College, Amherst, Mass.

DECEMBER 11-12 -- weekend -- NEW ENGLAND REGIONAL CONVENTION. All schools in the region will send at least two people, as many more as possible. An agenda will be circulated for corrections and additions. So far it includes workshops by campus type (finishing school for discontented suburban housewives, cow college, big urban knowledge factory, etc.) and then a redivision by special interest (community organizing about Vietnam, university reform, etc.). Regional structure and co-ordination will be discussed on Sunday. Everybody please come and get acquainted with other SDSers who share your problems and goals -- you will benefit by talking them over and planning strategy together.

REGIONAL OFFICE 52 DUNSTER STREET, CAMBRIDGE, MASS. 547-5457.