

responsible segment of our nation's population base, the precious hope and promise of the 'Kingdom' has been replaced by the Church. Organized religion has taught millions of church goers that the church and the kingdom are synonymous. The typical church goer in America has been taught to believe that the church is the kingdom of God on earth and that Jesus Christ reigns as a King in the hearts of His followers. This is the typical comprehension of what the glorious 'Kingdom of God' means to the average Christian in America today. This type of teaching by organized religion has blinded the Christian people of America to the one great central theme of all history, i.e., that of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ which is soon to fill this earth. By losing a vision of the 'Kingdom' the Christian people of America have lost the central teaching of Jesus Christ. They have in effect been robbed of the one greatest hope that Jesus Christ gave to mankind, that of the glorious age wherein He would reign as King over a literal Kingdom upon this earth. By substituting the church for the kingdom millions of Christian people have lost the central teaching of the Bible and the purpose for which Jesus Christ will return to this earth at the end of the age. This substitution of the church for the kingdom has further resulted in the evolution of a religious system, that holds little hope for mankind and the nations of the world. By removing the promise and hope of the Kingdom there is no hope for the nation today. The whole problem results in a depressive type of Christianity that offers hope only to the individual believer but little or no hope for the nation. When we realize that America is the beginning of God's great Kingdom come to earth, that the church is not the Kingdom in any sense of the word, and that the scriptures actually teach that Jesus Christ will return to judge the world in righteousness, establish a great world wide theocratic divine government upon a newly regenerated earth, then we begin to catch a "new vision" of the Bible and realize that the Church is the medium whereby man becomes spiritually called out from among the masses and prepared for a blessed life in the coming 'Kingdom' of God upon earth. A few of many, many scriptures that confirm the Kingdom and the Kingship of Jesus Christ are as follows: Genesis Ch. 12, Exodus Ch. 19, Num. 24: 17, Isa. 2: 1-5; 9: 6-7; 11: 1-9; 30: 23-26; 35: 1-10; 42: 1-4; 65: 17-25, Jer. 23: 5-6; 30: 10-24; 33: 14-26, Ezekiel Ch. 34; 43; 47, Daniel 2: 44-45; 7: 14, 18, 27, Micah Ch. 4, Zech. 6: 12-13; 9: 9; 14: 9, Luke 1: 32-33, and John 18: 36-37, Rev. Chapters 20, 21, and 22.

THAT THE CHURCH WILL BE RAPTURED OUT OF THIS WORLD IN THE END TIME.

This is another big lie that has been advanced by organized religion at the expense of Christianity. The false doctrine of the rapture is not taught in the scriptures. This theological falsehood has neutralized and blinded millions of people in the United States of America. By convincing millions of
