FROM VARIOUS PUBLISHERS; DISTRIBUTED BY ALYSON PUBLICATIONS

DANCER FROM THE DANCE, Andrew Holleran, cloth edition, was $9.95, now $2.95

A haunting, brilliant novel about a young man's search for love in the gay world.

WIVES WHO LOVE WOMEN, Jane Scott, cloth edition, was $9.95, now $2.95

Until her mid-forties, Jane Scott's life had been like that of many other women: she had married young, raised two children and had been an attentive wife and mother. But then she decided to quit suppressing her lesbian feelings; this is the story of what that decision meant for her.

SKINFLICK, by Joseph Hansen, cloth edition, was $8.95, now $3.95

A David Brandstetter Mystery, by the man the LA Times calls "simply the most exciting and effective writer of the classic California private-eye novel working today."

UNDER THE RAINBOW, Arnie Kantrowitz, cloth edition, was $8.95, now $2.95

An entertaining and intelligent story about growing up gay and Jewish.

HOMOSEXUALITIES: A Study of Diversity Among Men and Women, Alan P. Bell and Martin S. Weinberg, cloth edition, was $12.95, now $4.95

The complete findings of the Kinsey Institute study, the most thorough of its kind ever made. The authors explore the feelings of lesbians and gay men in regard to work, religion, politics, marriage and friendship; and they explore attitudes about sexual activity, sexual problems, and about homosexuality itself.

States of Desire: Travels in Gay America is one of the most popular gay books ever published; and Edmund White, the author, is one of our most widely praised writers. Here is his informative and entertaining account of what gay life is like around the U.S.

This is the cloth-bound edition of States of Desire, published at $12.95. It's yours free when you order any three other books described above or on our accompanying literature. (If you want more copies — this would make an excellent gift — they're $4.95 each.)
