

Generals Over the White House: Impact of the Military-Industrial Complex

This pamphlet not only analyzes the role of the military in the U.S. as seen in critical political developments, but it also takes up the question of the long-term economic impact of the giant military-industrial complex, and how what was once a major stimulant to the U.S. economy has now become a chronic depressant. 59 pp., $1.50 042-9

Imperialism and the Crisis in the Socialist Camp

China's treacherous invasion of Viet Nam is viewed in the context of the global class struggle and the de facto alliance between China's leadership and the imperialist camp. The pamphlet contains articles written immediately before and after the invasion. 57 pp., $1.50 030-5

Portugal: Revolutionary Developments, April 1974–December 1975

A revolutionary struggle of the workers combined with the collapse of its colonial empire in Africa brought down the fascist regime in Portugal in April 1974. This booklet deals with such topics as: The Communist Party and the Armed Forces Movement; the workers' seizure of Republica newspaper vs. bourgeois "freedom of the press"; NATO's threatened invasion; reasons for the setback of the workers' struggle. 40 pp., 8½" x 11", $1.00

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS

Albizu Campos and the Ponce Massacre

by Juan Antonio Corretjer

A vivid portrayal of the heroic struggle of the oppressed people of Puerto Rico for independence. The story of the Massacre of 1937 is written by a comrade of Albizu Campos, the great leader of the Nationalist Party. 25 pp., 75¢

The Built-In U.S. War Drive by Vince Copeland

A facts-and-figures explanation. Shows how corporate expansionism has dominated U.S. foreign policy ever since 1898. Enumerates the declared and undeclared conflicts since that time and exposes the contrived hoaxes (from the battleship Maine to the Tonkin Bay incident in 1964), which served as excuses rather than causes for U.S. intervention. Proves that the present economic system generates imperialist war. Implicitly calls for fundamental economic, social and political change in order to avoid otherwise inevitable war. 106 pp., $2.25 038-0

Chile 1970–1973: From Allende's Election to the Fascist Takeover

Reprinted from Workers World

Covers the major developments in Chile's tumultuous period from 1970 to the brutal CIA-organized coup in 1973. These articles warned of the great danger facing the Chilean workers and peasants as U.S. imperialism mobilized the reactionary forces of the Chilean state against the organizations of the masses. Also includes statements from the Movement of the Revolutionary Left in Chile (MIR). 112 pp., $2.00

East Timor: The Hidden War by Richard W. Franke

Describes one of the greatest David-against-Goliath battles of all time taking place in the small and almost unknown nation of East Timor against the invasion of Indonesia. This pamphlet explains the war and the background to it and why it has gone almost totally unreported in the Western press. 78 pp., $1.50

The Ethiopian Revolution and the Struggle Against U.S. Imperialism

A Week-by-Week analysis from Workers World newspaper

A revolution has been sweeping Ethiopia. It is a revolution against landlords and capitalists, against hunger, illiteracy, disease, and backwardness. Where is the Ethiopian Revolution going? How are the masses participating in the Revolution and who are the leaders? What strategies have imperialists and counter-revolutionaries pursued to crush and undermine the Revolution? How can an underdeveloped country just emerged from feudalism have a socialist perspective? This pamphlet deals with these questions and more as it chronicles the period of August 1977 to January 1978. Contains, as an appendix, the Program of the National Democratic Revolution of Ethiopia. 86 pp., $2.00 027-5

Expanding Empire by Vince Copeland

What exactly are the forces in the U.S. which generate coups, assassinations, and bloodbaths in the far corners of the earth? This pamphlet shows how big business cannot be reformed because it is bound by its own inexorable law—expand or die. 68 pp., $1.50

Eyewitness Ethiopia: The Continuing Revolution by Deirdre Griswold

Meet members of the peasants' and urban dwellers' associations (kebeles) who are bringing the Revolution into every corner of Ethiopia. Visit the war front in the Ogaden where refugees and military commanders explain the international significance of the Somali invasion. Hear Chairman Mengistu describe the achievements and tasks of the Revolution. The author spent three weeks in Ethiopia in February 1978. The pamphlet is well illustrated. Also contains a chronology of the revolution. 49 pp., $1.50 028-3

Indonesia: The Second Greatest Crime of the Century by Deirdre Griswold

Over a million victims were killed over a period of a few months in 1965 following the toppling of a left, nationalist government. How and why did it happen? Why
