BOOKS AVAILABLE FROM ADC

Abourezk, James and Bookbinder, Hyman. Through Different Eyes: Two leading Americans, a Jew and an Arab, Debate U.S. Policy in the Middle East. Moderated by David K. Shipler. Columnist Jack Anderson describes it as a "riveting book, full of fact and emotion." Bethesda, MD: Adler & Adler, 1987. 312 pages plus notes, cloth.

Findley, Paul. They Dare to Speak Out. With careful documentation and specific case histories, Findley, a congressman from Illinois for 22 years, details how government agencies, politicians, academics and journalists are manipulated by the Israel lobby. Westport, CN: Lawrence Hill, 1985. 332 pages plus notes, indexed, cloth.

Shaheen Jack. The TV Arab. A professor of communications studies the negative stereotype of the Arab in American television. Newscaster Ed Bradley, in a foreword, calls the book "a valuable passport to objectivity in the future treatment of the Arab." Bowling Green State University Popular Press, 1984. 134 pages plus notes, indexed, cloth.
