

Resist began in 1967 with a "Call to Resist Illegitimate Authority," issued in support of draft Resistance and in opposition to the war in Vietnam. As the war continued, Resist increasingly put its energy into soliciting and distributing funds for the growing anti-war movement. Now Resist's activities are more varied. With fundraising and grantmaking still at the core of its work, Resist also:

- puts out a newsletter that's both provocative and informative;
- acts as a resource center for groups seeking information about sources of funding; and
- provides technical assistance in fundraising.

When you make a contribution to Resist you'll get our monthly newsletter. Each issue takes a close, thoughtful look at a political topic related to our grant giving. Our writers often take controversial stands that provoke lively debates. The newsletter also keeps you up to date on the organizations that receive Resist grants.
