

And more than anything, I want to help the young students of BGU perform yet another one of those Israeli miracles in the desert.

I hope you agree.

And I hope that you will accept my invitation to help support Ben-Gurion University.

I can think of no better way to make a contribution that will -- without any question -- be a sound, productive investment in the future of the Jewish people.

So please act.

Please write your check to BGU's American Associates for $1,000, $100, $50, or for whatever you can afford.

Believe me...it's a mitzvah. And at BGU, they're counting on you.

Sincerely,

Lis Gaines

P.S. To succeed today in a mission of truly enormous importance, Ben-Gurion University must have your support and mine.

Please say "Yes."
