

it delights in God, and your thoughts are a glory to God.

Those of you who are Christians and who have the new birth, who belong to Christ, go on with Christ, go on with His truth, go on with His Word. Search the Scriptures, and go beyond the stage of the milk bottles and just a little milk of the Word to satisfy the babies. Go on and get into some of the deeper things, so you can have a discerning mind, and you will be able to discern between the Christian who is serving God and the Christian who has become the friend of the Devil and is helping his cause with his life and his ways. And you must go on to be able to discern these mighty things so that your life, your years, your works, and your days will all add up to the honor and the glory of Christ, whom God raised from the dead that you might live.

I opened this message by saying that God can get along without man, but man cannot get along without God. God is the source of all light; and if man is to live, he must come back to the Father in the way that the Father has provided.

That is the only way.

distributed by
20TH CENTURY REFORMATION HOUR
sponsored by CHRISTIAN BEACON
Collingswood, New Jersey