

Blind Leaders Of the Blind

If The Blind Lead The Blind, Both Shall Fall
Into The Ditch—Matthew 15:14

By Sarah Foulkes Moore

The most hopeless aspect of today's spiritual problems is the absence of a bold and militant leadership. The religious and secular press daily record events that themselves constitute danger signals sounding out the gravest of warnings to those who know the Prophetic Word. These events are academically discussed in sermons and articles but the absence of the least effort to rouse and unite all Christendom to ACTION is alarming. "Neither in the days of persecution by the Roman empire, nor when Arianism struck at the heart of the Christian faith, nor when Mohammedanism threatened to overwhelm Christendom, has the Church been exposed to dangers so great and attacks so fierce as those which menace it today."

Sound An Alarm In Zion

"I cannot understand the apathy of Christian people," declares a member of Congress. "They will not turn a hand to help those who are fighting their battle here at Washington. USE THE RADIO, THE PRESS, AND EVERY OTHER MEANS TO WAKE UP CHRISTIAN AMERICA! I am a Christian. I know what will happen if Communism is not stopped in its tracks. I will be shot. So will many other good people. There is no time to lose. Tell all Christians everywhere not to relax."

This tract is sounding forth the sharpest warnings ever sent forth. It is addressed to the praying constituency of America and the world. So swiftly now are the Satanic forces massing for the last awful conflict that the gospel war trumpet the forces of righteousness. That the people of the Lord may realize the seriousness of
