

THE REVISED VERSION BIBLE

HAS HAD TO BE REVISED

By A. R. Funderburk

The New Revised Version of the Bible copyrighted by the National Council of Churches has had to be re-revised.

"It came about this way," says Dr. H. P. Dunlop, a Presbyterian minister of Long Beach, California. "When their new 'Interpretation' came out with a footnote on Matthew one and verse sixteen which said Joseph was the father of Jesus, I wrote them and said: 'Your new bible will go down in history as THE BASTARD BIBLE. Because of this sentence you make the Lord Jesus Christ a bastard according to your estimation and we, Evangelical Christians, who delight in the Apostle's Creed which says He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, resent your implications.

They could not take it, so the publishers wrote me saying, 'The footnote to Matthew 1:16 has been removed in all the new editions of the Revised Standard Version Bibles.' (All of the above is documented.)

-----And let it be said here that it would take a lot of re-revising to put the whole truth back into this "New Revised (per) Version bible as this and the following articles clearly demonstrate.
