
updated weekly, except during some congressional recesses, with the latest information on family issues pending in Washington.

As always, FRC treasures your friendship and support. We are working hard to make the new Congress a champion for the family, and the more voices we add to that effort, the better chance we have that our values will prevail.

I hope that you will continue to be one of those united voices.

God bless you for your faithfulness to this organization, and may 1999 be a year of peace and prosperity for you and your loved ones.

Sincerely,

Chuck Donovan
Executive Vice President

P.S. Perhaps the best thing about our PSA campaign is the costs. We have been able to supply high-quality CDs to 1,600 stations nationwide at a cost of a little more than $20.00 each. Because these are public service spots, we have high hopes that stations will play them free of charge. FRC is committed to projects like this that communicate a positive pro-family message as cost-effectively as possible. We deeply appreciate the financial resources you share with us and are determined to use them wisely. Thank you again for your support.

FRC is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) charitable organization. Donations to FRC are tax-deductible consistent with IRC section 170.
