BOOKS

We've now expanded into distribution of books. Since there is no simple way to compute postage prices we have constructed a chart for book prices which include postage to corresponding parts of the world.

A No Record Deal And Other Experiments in Crass Commercialism

A 24 page booklet, two 24" by 36 inch posters, postcards and other peripheral information all stuffed into an LP record sleeve. Hardly what you'd normally call a book but we don't know what else to call it! Inside, contributors Doug Minkler, Harry Sherril, Martin Sprouse and John Yates work together to sum up the role of commercialism in modern consumer-capitalist society. Artwork and prose with a strong message (Pressure Drop Press, 1990)

The Poll Tax Riots

A 72 page account of the March 31st Poll Tax Riots in London told those who participated in the fight against upper class oppression of the masses. Filled with photos and containing 11 stories in all, this gives a good account of the day's events, it's impact and the over all spirit of anti-Poll Tax resistance. With an eye-catching full-color cover. (ACAB Press, 1990)

You Don't Have To Fuck People Over To Survive

By Seth Tobocman, one of the founding Editors of World War 3 Illustrated. A collection Seth's works; political commentary and social struggle expressed through artwork (Pressure Drop Press, 1990)
