HOW TO GET ON THE MAILING LIST

Single copies of all future publications and releases will be sent to any sincerely interested person who makes a verbal or written request. This is the only condition. There is no obligation, financial or otherwise. The mailing list has shown a healthy and steady growth. The greater the rate of growth, on this basis, the better would appear to be the progress of re-establishing faith in free men.

HOW IS THE FOUNDATION FINANCED?

Revenue comes from two sources:

1. Payment for publications bought in quantities for use in secondary distribution. Whereas a single copy of each release is sent to everyone on the mailing list, additional copies are obtainable at a charge. Income from this source about equals the direct cost of printing and shipping these purchased copies and covers about one-fifth of the Foundation's total operating expenses.

2. Unsolicited donations. The Foundation started in 1946 "at scratch," without an endowment. As one school teacher put it: "The Foundation has been conceived in the principles it aims to defend," simply meaning that—with the exception of publication sales—its activities are financed entirely by voluntary donations. These are made by persons from all walks of life, in accordance with their appraisal of the need for this kind of work and their evaluation of the Foundation's competency to perform it. Opportunities to make donations are presented two or three times each year to those on the mailing list who are not already Donors.

As one guide to those who may want to make donations, the cost of printing and postage for each individual on the mailing list is about $5.00 per year; for additional costs of research and all the other Foundation activities, another $10.00 per year. However, not everyone becomes a Donor; so far, about 125 out of each 1,000 on the mailing list are Donors, and the trend is upward. Donations range all the way from amounts as small as $1.00, to a few from foundations and business firms which donate the maximum suggested annual limit of $10,000. The average for all Donors is $100. The number and scope of activities are determined by the
