Dear Friends:

The first strains of Christmas music are floating over the air waves, and the first greeting cards of the season have arrived. And the first presentations of Handel's ennobling Messiah have been rendered. Thus the thoughts of us all are turning toward Christmas and the appropriate celebration of the birth of the Prince of Peace.

Many individuals and groups are concerned about the great issues of war and peace, and are seeking to promote international integrity, justice, and good will.

The American Freedom Association is one of the organizations which is seriously concerned about these issues. Its Board and constituents are comprised of thoughtful, patriotic Americans, many of whom are, like myself, veterans of military service who hold reserve commissions in the armed forces. Yet as Christians and patriotic Americans we long for honorable international peace. We believe that nations must work successfully to resolve their perplexing and acrimonious problems within the framework of international law, and through the agency of the United Nations and the World Court—not on new battle fields around the world.

We accordingly covet the friendship and support of other patriotic Americans of like mind and purpose in our High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program, annual Southeastern World Affairs Institute at Blue Ridge Assembly, and other educational programs.

At the year's end, therefore, we ask you to join hands with the American Freedom Association, which is a non-profit and educational organization. All contributions are tax deductible.

I hope you will consider favorably this invitation to join an active program dedicated to "Education on the Relation of World Law to Religion, Peace, and Freedom," by returning the enclosed envelope with your contribution.

Yours very truly

Robert H. Spiro
