

Yes, I'm sorry to report to you that the job has not been done, but I think that we have shown America that we, through much tribulation and fire, continue our evangelistic work unto the Lord and will continue to do the same in every other continent. We shall not be moved. Our work is really from God. The more they persecuted us, the more we grew, and God prospered us, and we multiplied. ("But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew." Exodus 1: 12). God will also multiply you and make you grow.

If there is anything that you as an individual or your organization can do, then do it now, because Jesus Christ is coming back to earth again. And many shepherds have forsaken the sheep and many churches have fallen away and become apostate, one of the last signs that Jesus mentioned (Matthew 24) before he comes back to earth. Let us take heed to His words in Revelation to be ye therefore zealous or else I will spue you out of my mouth. (Rev. 3:16-19)

Yours in the mighty name of Jesus Christ,
Lord and Savior of the whole world.
