Dear Friends,

WATCHMAN is on the road again! We certainly enjoyed our brief respite from travel, and were greatly refreshed by our time at home after all these years, but it is time to resume our pilgrimage as we search the land for those who have a heart to move in the fullness of God's strategy and plan for our generation.

We would like to apologize again for failing to answer all of the correspondence that we receive. We read each letter and enjoy hearing from you more than we can say, but it seems that there are simply not enough hours in the day to reply to each one. We have gotten many letters that have given us information or leads to track down for which we are most appreciative. And we receive many letters of encouragement or direction that minister to us tremendously. Please do not misinterpret our failure to respond as indifference. You are truly our friends, and we praise God for you all.

We just found out recently that some mail had piled up for us at an old address in Sutherlin, Oregon. Before LEGACY separated into two separate family ministries, we had a post office box in Sutherlin. We had mistakenly thought that it was no longer being used, and learned to our surprise that quite a lot of mail had piled up there in the last few months. If you have ordered tapes or sent anything at all to our Sutherlin address, please note that it is no longer valid. All correspondence should be sent to us at our Roseburg address. We are sorry for any inconvenience that this may have caused, and will fill all tape orders promptly.

The Byrd family also deeply appreciates all of the heartwarming response we have gotten from our PRAYERTEAM as we asked for re-enlistments for 1990. The number of people who have let us know that they wish to continue to pray for our family ministry gives us a sense of security that nothing else could. We praise God for this foolproof "insurance policy," and thank our PRAYERTEAM for their love and concern. We also thank those of you who have been used to enable us to continue our ministry through your financial support these last months. You are friends, indeed, and we only pray that God will find us faithful. We stand with you...

Always,

The Byrd Family
