

White Solstice

A winter getaway

A mountain holiday that offers much more than just skiing

Dec. 12 to 19, 1998 — $995.00. (Single supp.: $275)

Price includes:

- ☐ Deluxe condo-style accommodations with living room and kitchen;
- ☐ Five-day, 3-mountain ski pass;
- ☐ Opening night reception and dinner;
- ☐ Mid-week dinner party;
- ☐ Closing night dinner.

Not included:

- ☐ Airfare to Jackson;
- ☐ Meals not listed here;
- ☐ Fees for the various activities of your choice.

Is this the right trip for you?

Skiers of all levels will find plenty of challenges and excitement in Jackson Hole, on both downhill slopes and cross-country trails. Non-skiers who enjoy other winter activities, or who simply prefer a relaxing week in the mountains to the usual hectic holiday rush, are equally welcome.

Skiing Grand Targhee Mountain with the Grand Teton Peak around the next bend in the trail was like catching a glimpse of God.

Fredric S. Berger, Glendale, CA

Join us for a week in Jackson Hole, Wyo., a leading ski resort with plenty to occupy non-skiers, too. We'll stay at deluxe 2- and 3-bedroom condos in Teton Village, just minutes from restaurants, shopping, and lifts. Ski all you want, but save time for other activities.

Watch for moose on a cross-country ski trip or hike. Try your hand at snowboarding or snow-shoeing. Spend a day in Jackson's art galleries and museums. Then enjoy a terrific dinner with new friends.

Walk from your front door to the Jackson Hole ski tram and whisk up 4139 feet — the greatest continuous vertical rise in the U.S., with an average of 33 feet of snow a year. Or head for nearby Snow King or Targhee.

❖ Go on a wildlife safari, or a moonlit walk through snow-covered pines.

❖ Head up to Yellowstone for a day of cross-country skiing or snowmobiling.

❖ Try some new activities: Dog-sledding, hot-air ballooning, snowshoeing, ice-skating, or cross-country skiing.

❖ Browse in Jackson's famous art galleries and crafts shops.

❖ Feel daring? Take an ice-climbing class and hang off a frozen waterfall!

Traveling alone? So are most people who vacation with us. You get to know everyone quickly when you're enjoying activities together. And there's no need to pay the single supplement if you'd us to match you with a roommate.

