

(LYTTLE, Con.)

prison for nonviolently trespassing in protest on the Omaha base); in 1960, coordinated demonstrations against construction of Polaris missile launching submarines at Groton and New London, Connecticut; 1960-61 coordinated the San Francisco to Moscow Walk for Peace, a multi-national project that carried the pacifist message of unilateral disarmament and defense by nonviolent resistance into East Germany, Poland, and Russia; 1963-64 coordinated the Quebec to Miami Walk for Peace, during which he and more than 20 other demonstrators undertook a two months' fast of protest against their imprisonment in Albany, Georgia; in 1966 was a member of a team of United States pacifists expelled from Saigon as a result of efforts to protest the War in the South Vietnamese capital; in 1967 coordinated the Boston to Pentagon Walk for Peace, which culminated in nonviolent efforts to protest the War by entering the Pentagon's War Room, and coordinated logistics for the mass Lincoln Memorial-Pentagon demonstration of October; 1968-69 coordinated the Emergency Committee on Nigeria and Biafra, and co-coordinated logistics for the mass anti-war demonstration in November at the Washington Monument; 1969-71 nationally coordinated War Tax Resistance, and was a co-coordinator for the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice's mass Capital rally in Washington in May; in 1974 was "National Facilitator" for the Friends of the Filipino People, and contributed several exhibits to the peace movement section in the Smithsonian Institution's bicentennial exhibit, "We the People".

Since 1974, he has been living in Chicago, primarily caring for his elderly parents.

Bradford Lyttle is a conscientious objector to war, and in 1954-55 was incarcerated for nine months in the Medical Center for Federal Prisoners, Springfield, Missouri, for refusing to cooperate with the Selective Service Law. He is a member of the 57th Street Meeting of Friends (Quakers), in Chicago, the Community Church of New York (Unitarian), the Fellowship of Reconciliation, Peacemakers, and the War Resisters League.

His address and phone number are: 5729 S. Dorchester Ave., Chicago, IL 60637; (312) 324 0654.

(GORMAN, Con.)

the draft, justice in Central America, and opposition to the death penalty. She is a member of the National Association of Religious Women (NARW), the National Organization of Women (NOW; she's Vice-President for Action of the Richmond chapter of NOW), Pax Christi, the Richmond Peace Education Center, SPAN (a Richmond area peace action group), Virginians Against the Death Penalty, and WARTAG (a Richmond area war tax alternatives group). She writes that she's "a womanist, working for a nonviolent society in which all people are treated equally."

Donna Gorman's address and phone number are 8319 Fulham Court, Richmond, VA 23227; (804) 266 7173.

~~~~~

The United States Pacifist Party Report is a publication of the United States Pacifist Party (USPP), the address of whose national headquarters may be found on page 1. In addition to the Report, the Party publishes a variety of other analyses, platform statements, speech copies, literature lists, organizational memos, and other documents designed to interpret and promote the Party. If you aren't already receiving mailings, and would like to, please notify the Party's headquarters.

Sponsors of the Party include:

|                      |                 |
|----------------------|-----------------|
| Henry Bass           | Walter A.       |
| Brahm Bassford       | McCleneghan     |
| Richard M. Bowers    | Kay Meyers      |
| Harold B. Brokaw     | David Moffatt   |
| Adele K. Christensen | Fred Moore      |
| Julius Davis         | Ed Pearson      |
| David Finke          | Georgia Pearson |
| Lisa Ann Ford        | Charles Piersol |
| Jerome Gorman        | Evelyn Piersol  |
| Kathy Kelly          | Mitch Snyder    |
| Jack Klinger         | Joe Stern       |
| Merle Krause         | Prudence        |
| Milton Mayer         | Wayland-Smith   |

Unsigned articles in this Report are by Bradford Lyttle, currently the USPP's Presidential candidate.

~~~~~

The USPP welcomes financial contributions, large and small. Our thanks to everyone who's contributed since the last issue of the Report.