

As feminists, we know how to write letters of protest. Endorse the Mark Curtis Defense Committee. And, get out your pens and paper. Write a letter today and let the Des Moines prosecutor's office know that women cannot be used anymore to try and intimidate the activist community in this country.

In Solidarity,

Pam Leary Valadez, President, Greensboro, N.C., National Organization for Women (NOW)*

Mrs. Ida Blackwell
Retired Social Worker, Des Moines, Iowa

Mary Brown
President, IUE local 829*, Des Moines

Fernande Clement
Status of Women's Committee
Confederation of National Trade Unions,
Montreal, Canada

Joan W. Drake
WILPF*, Washington, D.C.

Connie Gilbert-Neiss
Co-coordinator, Essex County, New Jersey,
NOW

Susan Mnumzana
African National Congress Women's Section*

Nadine G. Riley
Oregon President Church Women United*

Teresa Sierra
Chicano and Women's Rights Activist, Iowa
City

Pat Stell
President, Puget Sound Chapter, Coalition of Labor Union Women*, Seattle

Mary-Alice Waters
Editor, New International

Anne Braden
Southern activist

Akua Budu-Watkins
African-American Women's Collective*,
Detroit, Michigan

Jane Curtis
Mother of Mark Curtis, Santa Fe, New Mexico

Barbara A. Ferraro & Patricia A. Hussey
Former nuns and abortion rights supporters,
Charleston, West Virginia

Edna M. Griffin
Des Moines

Judy Rebick
Past President, Ontario New Democratic Party Women's Committee*; Abortion
Rights Activist

Sammye Roberts
State President, Alabama NOW

Linda J. Smith
President, Greater Birmingham NOW*

Janet Walker
President, AFGE local 1164*; VP, Mass.
Coalition of Labor Union Women*; President, A. Philip Randolph Institute*, Boston

North Staffs Miners Wives Action Group,
Women Against Pit Closures, Stafford,
Britain

(*Organizations for identification only)

For more information, please contact the MARK CURTIS DEFENSE COMMITTEE
Box 1048, Des Moines, IA 50311; (515) 246-1695