He watching over Israel,

A HYMN

Ho! Land of Wings, of Olive and of Star;
Land seen by Patriarchs and Prophets afar;
Land of the Covenant, the Cross, & Lord Christ's Crown---
Bow down in thy might, your God of Israel own.

Fierce beats the storm upon thy lawless way,
Cleansing your land of sin's evil sway;
Omens of change arise on every hand;
Lift up your head! God's righteousness doth stand.

Call to thy mind your mighty days of old
Which all your fathers to their sons have told;
Cry now to the God of Israel's rereward,
Whose strength of arm doth both guide and guard.

Oh! God of Jacob, hear Thy people's voice;
Grant that in Christ's rich grace we may rejoice;
Grant that our nation Thee their King may crown
Till all the world Thy Sovereign right does own.
