

in a bit.

Can you commit to helping in these three areas?

Quite frankly, I'm coming to you because I know how loyal and supportive you've been in the past. You have proven you are a doer and not just a talker. And, to be honest, you're the kind of people we need to win this fight.

So if I can't count on your commitment, then I'm not sure where to turn for help. That's why I'm coming to you first.

Are you with me? Can I count on you?

Let me know by simply circling the "YES" or "NO" you'll find on your 90 DAY REPLY memo.

Now before you circle your answer, let me tell you exactly what I expect of you.

(1) Prayer and Fasting

Do you recall the time Christ's disciples were unsuccessful at expelling a demon from a boy? When they came to Our Lord He commanded the devil leave the boy and it did so immediately.

The disciples asked why they were unable to cure the boy and Christ, after saying it was due to their unbelief, added: "However, this kind does not go out but by prayer and fasting."

Well, our fight against MCA/Universal is one that will not be won except by prayer and fasting on our part. These will be our acts of reparation for the insult MCA/Universal has heaped upon Our Lord.

So I expect you to pray for victory. And to fast, too.

That's the first thing.

(2) Full and personal involvement

This may not be as easy as you think.

Here's where the 90-days comes into play.

Right now, no one has won anything in the fight over this movie. MCA/Universal didn't win anything when they released their movie August 12. And we haven't won anything just because we organized many protests and kept every major theater chain in the country (those not owned by MCA/Universal) from booking the movie.

No, the winner of this battle won't be decided for another 90 days.

If neither MCA Incorporated nor Universal Studios suffer any
