

Jesus Saves!

The Kingdom Of God

By E. H. Britain

“For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.” Romans 14:17.

That passage of Scripture has been on my mind so constantly and for so long, I feel I must write a message on it. It seems so very real to me, and I’m sure it will mean much to you also, if you will dwell on it for a season. JUST THINK for a moment, of the wonderful message that it carries! In this day of confusion; of many varied and contradictory doctrines; of so many groups, and cliques, and clans, and divisions, and movements, all going under the heading of Christianity. Each one sure they themselves are the only ones that are right, and all others are wrong. And they battle, and seem to think they do God’s service by rending and tearing and devouring each other.

And in the midst of it all, this wonderful truth stands out as a beacon light, to guide us, to hold us steady, that we may know and discern between good and evil. “For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.”
