

Clarence E.
MANION

The Key to Peace

"The author (formerly Dean of Notre Dame Law School) emphasizes that our free institutions rest upon a religious conviction that every individual is a child of God and therefore is of supreme worth. . . . It is one of the greatest books of all my reading experience."

—NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

83 pages. The Heritage Foundation, 1951.
$1.00 paper, $2.00 cloth

John Stuart
MILL

On Liberty

A convenient, pocket-size, readable edition of a great classic.

160 pages. Regnery, Gateway edition. $1.45 paper

Ludwig von
MISES

The Anti-Capitalistic Mentality

A critical exposure of the fallacies and misconceptions of the anticapitalistic sentiments of the literati.

114 pages, indexed. D. Van Nostrand, 1956.
$3.75 cloth

Ludwig von
MISES

Bureaucracy

Though useful in administering a police department, bureaucracy in economic affairs means disregard of the interests of consumers and disastrous rigidity.

125 pages. Yale University Press, 1962. $1.45 paper
148 pages. London: Wm. Hodge & Company, Ltd.,
1945. $1.50 cloth

Ludwig von
MISES

Human Action

The master work of the outstanding economist of our time.

907 pages, indexed. Yale University Press, Revised,
1963. $15.00 cloth

Ludwig von
MISES

*Planned Chaos

An examination of interventionism in its various forms — socialism, communism, fascism, etc. This essay is included in the 1951 edition of Socialism.

90 pages, 1957. $1.00 paper, $2.00 cloth

Socialism

"This book must rank as the most devastating analysis of socialism yet penned. . . . An economic classic in our time."

—HENRY HAZLITT in the New York Times

599 pages, indexed. Yale University Press, 1951.
$10.00 cloth

The Theory of Money and Credit

This new edition, with an essay on "Monetary Reconstruction," explains the function of money as a medium of exchange, the factors influencing its value, and the effects of governmental intervention.

493 pages, indexed. Yale University Press, 1953.
$7.50 cloth

The Works of Ludwig von Mises

A bibliography compiled by Bettina Bien.

63 pages, multilithed. $1.00 paper

*Our Nation's Water Resources — Policies and Politics

An analysis of government versus private development of power and water resources.

245 pages. The Law School, University of Chicago,
1956. $3.50 cloth

*The Admiral's Log, Volumes I and II

Collections of speeches on patriotism and economic freedom by the organizer of the Navy Seabees in World War II.

Vol. I, 176 pages; Vol. II, 205 pages. 1958 and 1960.
Each volume $1.00 paper

Freedom and Federalism

"Americans have witnessed first the nationalization of rights, then the nationalization of power, now the nationalization of the concept of freedom itself." The problem is to understand and recover our original values.

274 pages, indexed. Regnery, 1959. $1.45 paper

Ludwig von
MISES

Ludwig von
MISES

Biblio.

Ben
MOREELL

Ben
MOREELL

Felix
MORLEY