

God will not desert America. Much of the punishment that we are receiving at the hands of demagogues and the traitors is the result of the negligence and irresponsibility of citizens who should have known better than to desert the ship or to neglect to fulfill their patriotic responsibility.

In the light of the ominous situation which confronts our nation with the destruction of the Presidency and with the election of a veto-proof Congress, it is important that every Christian patriot review in his mind idealistic responsibilities to which he must give himself and for which he must sacrifice if our Nation is to be saved.

It involves not only the salvation of our Nation but the salvation of Christian civilization. Of course, Christianity can never be destroyed but it can be driven into the catacombs as it was in the Dark Ages and we are on the edge of a situation just like that unless you and I and others like us give completely of ourselves in the spirit of the same loyalty that characterized the Apostle John and the Mother Mary as they stood at the foot of the bloody cross.

America is being crucified. We must demonstrate the faith that will translate the blackness of crucifixion into the brightness of Easter morn. Only the power of God, matched with our faith, can accomplish these purposes.

I count on you. You have never deserted us and I believe you never will - But, the fact remains - without your vote of confidence we will be out of the fight. With your vote of confidence we will continue and expand beyond anything we have done in the entire lifetime of this Crusade. The decision is up to you - please grant that we are enabled to continue and even increase our efforts.

I challenge you to stand with me with your prayers, your money and your moral support. Give to your sacrificial limit. Help me to continue to direct the sending out of truckloads of truth - the kind of truth that eventually resulted in the surrender of the accused murderer - Teddy "leave her there to drown" Kennedy - who was on the edge of becoming the President of the United States. Now join us in exposing the rest of the traitors!

God save us! God save us!

For God and Country!
