

FAMILY RESEARCH COUNCIL

No Hawaiian Honeymoon for Marriage?

As Gary Bauer's letter explains in detail, Hawaii's courts are likely to issue an unprecedented challenge to the institution of marriage this summer. To help you respond to that challenge, the Family Research Council has put together a Defense of Marriage Packet (PK037). It contains all the information you need to act now to protect marriage from ideological attack. Use the other side of this card to order a free copy of this packet today.

We recognize, though, that today's legislative and judicial skirmishes over marriage have deep roots. Our media elites' appetite for novelty and our decline into relativism have pushed traditional marriage to the brink. How have we fallen so far, so fast?

Maggie Gallagher, writer and social critic, offers an answer to this question that is full of information and insight. The Abolition of Marriage is a book that describes the present crisis—and the future hope—of an institution that is as old as the Garden of Eden. To understand how America has come to the verge of abandoning man-woman marriage, Maggie Gallagher is essential reading. See the other side of this card for information on how to obtain a discounted copy of this important book.
